BONNIE BURR REAPPEARS TODAY

Twelfth and Washington, Between 5 and 6
p. m., Is Place

Capture Mystery Girl and Win $200 From The Tribune

(By BONNIE BURR.)

The chase is on! A vast assemblage of genial Oaklanders met me at the corner of Twelfth and Washington last evening, a merry assemblage bubbling with good humor and only half in earnest.

Hundreds of copies of THE TRIB-UNE were prominently displayed and many of them were in possession of folk from across the bay, who, despite the fact that the rules of the contest or them, are again on my trail.

Personally I don't in the least mind and was rather pleased to see their friendly and familiar faces. Everybody seemed to be having too good a time really to search for me and my most delightful impression of Oak-landers was deepened by adventures in this genial optimistic gathering.

It was a rather unique experience for me—appearing in a baffling disguise at the very start of the contest.
As a general rule I scarcely trouble to disguise for my first appointment in a city, as it generally takes two or three days thoroughly to arouse the public to the spirit of the search, but as scores of participants active in the chase during my San Francisco engagement were residents of Oakland and as I felt sure there would be some persons from across the bay on hand,
I resolved to take no chances but appear effectively disguised.

NO EASY PRIZE.

So, you see, from the very beginning you will have to work hard to win that alluring prize of $200 in gold offered by THE TRIBUNE.

Yesterday was my busy day to be sure. After motoring over the entire city in my big Oldsmobile I explored the entire downtown section on foot.
After my noon appearance I made haste to my hotel to partake of a hasty luncheon and then, in a light disguise and in company with my maid, walked through the business portion of the city. We entered many beautiful shops and even accomplished some hasty shopping. I heard much discussion of Bonnie Burr everywhere.
The contest seemed to be the general topic yesterday on the streets and in business establishments. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon we were at Twelfth street and Broadway, which later became the animated scene of an encounter with a great Oakland crowd.

It was after 5 o'clock when I left my hotel to visit the appointed cover, and I arrived at about 5:20.
From Fourteenth street and Broadway I could see the great crowd and was pleased at its size. The gathering was well distributed over the four corners, though the northwest corner held the greatest number of people.

It was on this corner that I first

He has also withdrawn from

Workers Wanted
Fifty men and women are wanted at the directors' room of the Chamber of Commerce, Thirteenth and Harrison streets, to report at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning to help in the circulation of the anti-annexation petitions. Over 20,000 signatures have so far been procured, and the executive committee feels confident of procuring the remainder of signatures necessary to place the measure upon the official ballot next November if fifty more men and women will go out tomorrow morning and work for the good cause. The business interests of Oakland and Alameda county are responding freely with financial assistance and sufficient funds with which to defray all the expenses are now definitely assured. If the finance committee meets with as good success, during the next two days as it has experienced during the first day of its canvass for

Mme. Caillaux Free; Jury Acquits Her

PARIS, July 28.—Madame Henriette Caillaux, wife of Ex-Premier Joseph Caillaux, was acquitted tonight after a trial lasting nine days on the charge of murdering, on March 16th last, Gaston Calmette, the editor of the Figaro.

Mme. Caillaux, fainting in court again today while Maitre Chenu, one of the attorneys representing the family of the murdered editor, was delivering a cutting analysis of her actions on the day of the tragedy. Because of the defendant's condition, Judge Albaladejo suspended the sitting.

Mme. Caillaux looked worn and ill when she entered the prisoners' enclosure of the criminal court of the Palace of Justice for the eighth day's hearing in her trial.

The proceedings started with a speech by Edouard Seligman, one of the attorneys representing the family of the murdered editor.

Mme. Caillaux had been becoming violently ill since the day of the tragedy and appeared unconscious of what was occurring in court.

A hot water bottle was placed beneath her feet and a cushion at her back soon after she entered the court.

Meanwhile Maitre Seligman continued his address.

REPLY TO NOTE FROM VIENNA BLASTS PEACE

Both Germany and Austria-Hungary
Spurn Mediation; Battle Squadrons

SERVIAN CONFLICT IS DECLARED

VIENNA, July 28.—The declaration of war was gazetted here late this afternoon. The text is as follows:
"The royal government of Serbia not having replied in a satisfactory manner to the note remitted to it by the Austro-Hungarian minister in Belgrade on July 23, 1914, the imperial and royal government finds itself compelled to proceed to safeguard its rights and interests and to have recourse for this purpose to force of arms.
"Austria-Hungary considers itself therefore from this moment in a state of war with Serbia.
(Signed) "COUNT BERCHTHOLD,
"Minister Foreign Affairs of Austria-Hungary."

LONDON, July 28.—Announcement of the declaration of war by Austria-Hungary on Serbia came today almost immediately after Germany and Austria had notified Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, of their refusal to join in a mediation conference. It is assumed here that the efforts of the European nations will now be directed toward localizing the hostilities.

The actual cause of Austria-Hungary's decision to enter in hostile conflict with Serbia was the reply sent by the Balkan state to the note from Vienna demanding that Serbia take steps to put a stop to the Pan-Servian propaganda on Austrian territory and punish those Servians indirectly concerned in the assassination in Bosnia on June 22d of Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

PROPOSAL UNSATISFACTORY.

The proposal of Serbia was considered by the foreign office in Vienna "unsatisfactory," and in a semi-official communication made public yesterday the Austria-Hungarian government said that the reply was "filled with the spirit of dishonesty."

In the meantime Sir Edward Grey took the initiative of requesting the European powers to permit their ambassadors in London to confer with a view to a peaceful solution of the controversy. Italy and France at once consented to join their efforts to those of Great Britain, but Germany and Austria refused, Germany supporting her ally in the contention that it would be undignified for a great power to intercede for Austria before a tribunal of European powers on the same status as the little Balkan nation.

MOBILIZES ARMY.

Austria-Hungary in the interval had proceeded rapidly with the mobilization of her great army. The entire railroad system was utilized for the movement of troop trains, the telegraph system was virtually monopolized for government business and a strict censorship was imposed.

Servia also had mobilized her forces and had withdrawn the garrison of Belgrade, the capital, to the interior as the chief city of Servia occupied a position too vulnerable to be held. Every war office and admiralty in Europe was occupied in preparations for eventualities, even the smaller countries, such as Holland, Belgium and Switzerland taking precautionary measures.

FORMAL DECLARATION.

Then today came the formal declaration of war by Austria-Hungary, one of the members of the triple alliance, the other two countries in which are Germany and Italy.

The notification of the fact was sent this afternoon to the Ser-

NISH, Servia, July 28.—The Servian steamers Deligrad and Morava were seized today at Orzova, on the Danube, by Austrians. The Servian colors were hauled down and the Austrian flag hoisted. The passengers were detained.

VIENNA, July 28.—The Militaerische-Rundschau reports active movements of both Servian and Montenegrin troops, which are in close touch at Priboi, near the frontier of Bosnia.

GLASGOW, July 28.—Three Italian warships visiting the Clyde were ordered today to return immediately to Italian waters.

BERLIN, July 28.—An unconfirmed dispatch from Gumnainen, East Prussia, to the Taegliche Rundschau today says Russia has occupied the Russian Poland, with a force of engineers, cavalry, artillery and regiments of infantry, while Russian garrisons have been placed along all roads on the frontier. The dispatch adds that a squadron of German Chlans has advanced to Eydtkuhnen, on the Russian frontier.

When and Where Bonnie Burr Appears Today and Tomorrow

One of the most enthusiastic gatherings that has turned out in years was on hand last evening to capture MISS BONNIE BURR, the Girl With the Pink Mask, but the elusive MISS managed to escape detection with ease. However, she will try conclusions with the public again TODAY NOON, on the corner of THIRTEENTH AND BROADWAY between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock.

Should MISS BONNIE BURR be able to elude detection today, noon, look for her THIS EVENING on the corner of TWELFTH AND WASHINGTON STREETS between 5 and 6 o'clock. In case the elusive MISS manages to escape detection TODAY be on hand TOMORROW NOON on the corner of FOURTEENTH AND BROADWAY between 12 and 1 o'clock.

Read the rules and conditions which are printed on another page of this issue and memorize the following salutation: "PARDON ME, YOU ARE THE MYSTERIOUS MISS BONNIE BURR OF THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, THE FASTEST GROWING PAPER IN CALIFORNIA."
If the salutation is correctly repeated, and it's the mysterious MISS BURR she will at once admit her identity, take you to the office of THE TRIBUNE and the $200 in GOLD will be yours.
MISS BONNIE BURR will positively remain in OAKLAND until she is apprehended.

BIG LEAD FOR BIG LEAD FOR REPUBLICANS

When the final count is made of registration affidavits by County Clerk Cook, the indications are the Republicans will lead the Progressives by considerably over 1000, the count last night and up to the noon hour today showing a majority of 950 vian government which has its temporary headquarters at Kraguevatz.

It was expected here that a declaration of the beginning of hostilities would follow quickly on Germany's decision to hold aloof from any scheme of mediation. The German foreign office had said that a conference of ambassadors would, in its opinion, serve no useful purpose, while "conversations" between Vienna and St. Petersburg were still in progress.

The attitude of Russia was watched carefully today in official circles here and the firm belief was expressed that Russia would enter the lists in support of the little Slavic kingdom as soon as fighting started in earnest.

The refusal of Germany and Austria-Hungary to participate in a mediation conference on the Austro-Servian conflict, reports of the rapid movement of Austro-Hungarian troops and the persistent downward trend of European stock markets were among the developments today of the European situation.

Preparations for war proceeded on all sides. Even England's battle squadrons have all been mobilized in readiness for eventualities and the publication of official news as to the movements of British warships has ceased. The first and second battle squadrons have taken on their full war stores and are ready to slip their anchors at a moment's notice, the destroyer flotillas around the coast also have been prepared and armed guards were placed today around all the magazines and oil depots.

Germany's definite decision against participation in the ambassadorial conference proposed by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, in an effort to maintain peace, is regarded here as tantamount to a declaration of Germany's determination that Austria-Hungary shall have an entirely free hand in chastising Servia unless the Balkan kingdom accedes in full to the demands of the dual monarchy.

REPORT OF HOSTILITIES UNCONFIRMED.

According to advices received here, Germany's refusal was couched in terms of sympathy with Sir Edward Grey's object, but contended that the suggested conference would place Austria-Hungary in the invidious position of appearing, like the Balkan states, before a European tribunal to explain her actions, and therefore likely to increase rather than decrease the difficulties of the situation.

Apparently authentic reports current here assert that Russia has been given positive assurances that Austria-Hungary has no intention of annexing Servian territory. If true, this might, it is believed, help the efforts to localize the war, should it break out.

Thus far there has been no official confirmation of the reports of hostilities between Austria and Servia, but a number of rumors have been published, including one of the seizure of Servian ships carrying contraband by an Austrian patrol on the Danube.

FLEET CONCENTRATED.

BERLIN, July 28.—The German admiralty today ordered the concentration of the German fleet in home waters.

In its communication Germany declared that it considers the suggestion of Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, as well-meant and good in principle, but not feasible in practice and impossible to carry out.

It says it cannot be expected that a great power having a dispute with a smaller will submit the matter to the decision of a European tribunal. Far less can it be hoped that two great powers will submit to be summoned in the role of accused before such a tribunal.

Germany makes the counter suggestion that negotiations for peace be conducted between the cabinets by a conference.

Reports from the Austro-Servian front today state that the transport of the Eighth and Ninth Austrian army corps from Bohemia toward the Servian frontier began yesterday and that there was no other traffic on the Bohemia railroads except that of troop trains.

TELEGRAPH DEMORALIZED.

The two corps consist of thirty-two battalions of infantry, with a large number of quick-firing machine guns, six regiments of cavalry, two regiments of field artillery and two regiments of the army service corps. Telegraphic communication with Carlsbad and Marienbad was still open today, but the telegraphic service between Berlin and Vienna was demoralized and on some lines was completely interrupted.

The Minister Wochenblatt, the official military weekly newspaper, prints today a noteworthy article comparing the Austro-Hungarian and Russian armies to the disadvantage of the latter. It says the fighting strength of the Russian army is usually overestimated and that numbers alone are not decisive.

One of the newspapers here today received a dispatch saying Russia had declared war against Austria, but declined to print it, as there was no confirmation.

TOO LATE TO COMPLY.

VIENNA, July 28.—The imperial Austro-Hungarian foreign office declared today that even should Servia now comply with the demands contained in the Austrian note the government of the dual monarchy would not be satisfied. Officials at the ministry stated that Servia's reply had made it impossible for Austria-Hungary to adhere to her former standpoint and compliance by Servia with the demands made on her could no longer influence the course of action of Austro-Hungary.

SERVIANS LEAVE CAPITAL.

BELGRADE, Servia, July 27 (by direct route).—Many Servian families have left the capital for the country districts in spite of the advice of the authorities while there is such a great exodus of Austrians and Hungarians from Belgrade and other parts of Servia.

Although perfect order prevails in the capital military preparations are being carried out with feverish activity. The troops have been concentrated in fortified positions the headquarters of the army being established at Kraguevatz, 90 miles south east of Belgrade.

CONFER AT PARIS.

PARIS, July 28.—Baron Von Schöner, the German ambassador, held a conference with Blenheim Martin, acting premier at the foreign office in the morning and the members of the cabinet were summoned to meet later in the day.

REPORT ACCEPTANCE.

LONDON, July 28.—A newspaper despatch from Semlin on the Danube says the Servian Parliament after a prolonged debate, is reported to have accepted all the demands made by Austria-Hungary.

The public in the German capital was very nervous today and alarmist rumors continued to circulate. The run on the savings banks in which the poorer classes deposit their money, was resumed this morning. As early as 5 o'clock there were long lines of depositors outside the municipal savings banks and the people insisted on having their money regardless of the reassuring statements by the officials of Berlin. The police authorities of Berlin announced today they would not permit any more patriotic processions in the streets of Berlin. Hitherto these had not been interfered with.

DEPUTIES CHEER KING.

BUDA PEST, July 28.—A great patriotic demonstration took place in the Hungarian Diet today when the royal rescript was read proroguing Parliament. The deputies cheered the king, the country and the army. Speeches were made by prominent deputies, during which every patriotic word was loudly applauded.

ANTI-WAR RIOTS.

PARIS, July 28.—Violent anti-war demonstrations occurred on the boulevards last night accompanied by the singing of revolutionary songs. Large forces of police and mounted Republican Guards under the direction of Prefect Hennion, frequently charged the crowds. Many persons were knocked down and injured.

The disorders were complicated by patriotic demonstrations and on several occasions attempts were made to rush the gates frequented by Germans which finally were guarded by the police.

At the end of the demonstrations tonight the streets were littered with broken canes, umbrellas, hats and turn overcoats. A large number of police received injuries while repelling the demonstrators, of whom 200 were arrested.

COUNT REJOINS COMPANY.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Count Otto Salm-Hogstratten of Vienna, who has been in this country several months today sailed on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, in response to a cable message from his father instructing him to rejoin his company of dragons, of which he is the captain.

The count and his brother, Alexander, were the tennis champions of Austria. Last February they played in the indoor tournament in the Seventh Regiment Armory here with success. The count is 32 years old and an adept at most outdoor sports.

GERMAN CRUISER SAILS.

HONOLULU, T. H., July 27.—The German cruiser, the Nautilus, was due to leave Wednesday for Samoa. She was instructed today to clear immediately. She sailed before daylight.

RUSSIAN ARMY MOBILIZING.

BERLIN, July 28.—No confirmation had been received up to a late hour this evening of the Russian foreign office or the Russian ambassador, of the mobilization of Russian army corps in Russia, as reported in yesterday's dispatches to London.

A German official declared flatly that any Russian mobilization against Austria, partial or otherwise, meant war. German mobilization orders would then be issued immediately and when these once had been launched, there would be no possibility of recalling them or of Germany resting on her arms while negotiations continued. As the strategic necessities of war on her two frontiers would force Germany to strike immediately and hard.

The opinion was expressed in well-informed Russian circles tonight, however, that partial mobilization of Russian troops along the Austrian frontier was quite probable as an answer to the Austrian declaration of war on Servia.

think that such a step could be undertaken without evoking a German counter-mobilization.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE AFFECTED.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The declaration of war and a panicky effect on the wheat pit of the Chicago Board of Trade was felt today on the New York Produce Exchange. Prices advanced from 3c to 4 1/2c per bushel over last night's close. Corn, oats, pork and lard advanced 1/2c, 1/4c, 1/4c and 1/4c respectively. Declined coffee to new low levels. September coffee sold off 55 points while December March and May declined from 47 to 55 points.

SUSPEND TRADING.

TORONTO, July 28.—Trading was suspended on the Toronto Stock Exchange this afternoon. Whether the exchange will resume tomorrow morning depended on the governors said on the conditions in London and other European exchanges.

MAY CALL S. F. RESERVISTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—San Francisco in all probability will be called upon to furnish its full quota of German officers and soldiers to Emperor Wilhelm's army if it takes the field against Russia as the dual monarchy's ally. The Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific Railroads have offered the German imperial authorities in San Francisco to convey the reservists at greatly reduced rates to the Eastern seaports at a moment's notice on the declaration of war. The authorities have expressed their appreciation of the railroads' offer.

ILAN MASS-MEETING.

A mass meeting of the officers and accredited delegates from the 13 Servian and Croatian societies in this city, San Francisco and their environs will be held Friday or Saturday night of this week at Servian headquarters 1034 Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco, to take action on a "clagan" received yesterday from M. J. Punn at New York assuring for a collection of funds to further the Servian cause in the impending conflict with Austria.

Pupin is a professor in the Columbia University, New York City, and the Servian Consul-General in this country. His telegram read as follows:

It seems as if war is inevitable. Organize a committee for a collection of funds, and act energetically.

CLAIM CITY'S WHARF IS BEING MUCH DAMAGED

The attention of the West Oakland Taxpayers and business association was called at their meeting last evening to a report that much damage is being done to the municipal wharf and the piling of the western waterfront. It is claimed that contractors' fire along the Key Route wharf has caused much injury to the piling, causing much injury to the new wharf, and piling. A committee from the West Oakland organization was appointed to investigate the matter and if necessary to report immediately the condition of affairs to the city commission.

The rule effectively prohibits any collusion and makes this contest of skill absolutely fair and above board. Boys under 18 years of age are also prohibited from securing the reward, and will not be recognized in the capture.

This same rule applies to any person directly or indirectly connected with THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, or any member of his or her family.

SHE SPENDS $2000.

At the time of his departure for the southern hemisphere, Daniel declares in his complaint, he left his wife $2000 with which to pay her expenses. She went to the Key Route Inn on April 7 and up to the first of the present month, she had expended the entire $2000 and accumulated considerable indebtedness, her husband declares.

Mrs. Daniel is an attractive woman and during the time that she lived in Piedmont she often made trips to San Francisco without her husband, leaving him home to care for the children. Her conduct in the home, he says, was such that they could not keep a servant.

On one occasion when she went to San Francisco she failed to telephone that she would not return home, with the result that Daniel waited half the night watching at the Key Route station for her arrival. Finally he put the children to bed and next morning finally met the defendant as she stepped from a train.

When asked why she had not telephoned she is alleged to have replied that the phone was not working. This was a flimsy excuse, her husband pointed out. On another occasion Daniel searched for his wife in various places about Oakland and inquired among her acquaintances but to no effect.

The couple were married in Webb City, Missouri, in June, 1901, and for some time have been living on the coast.

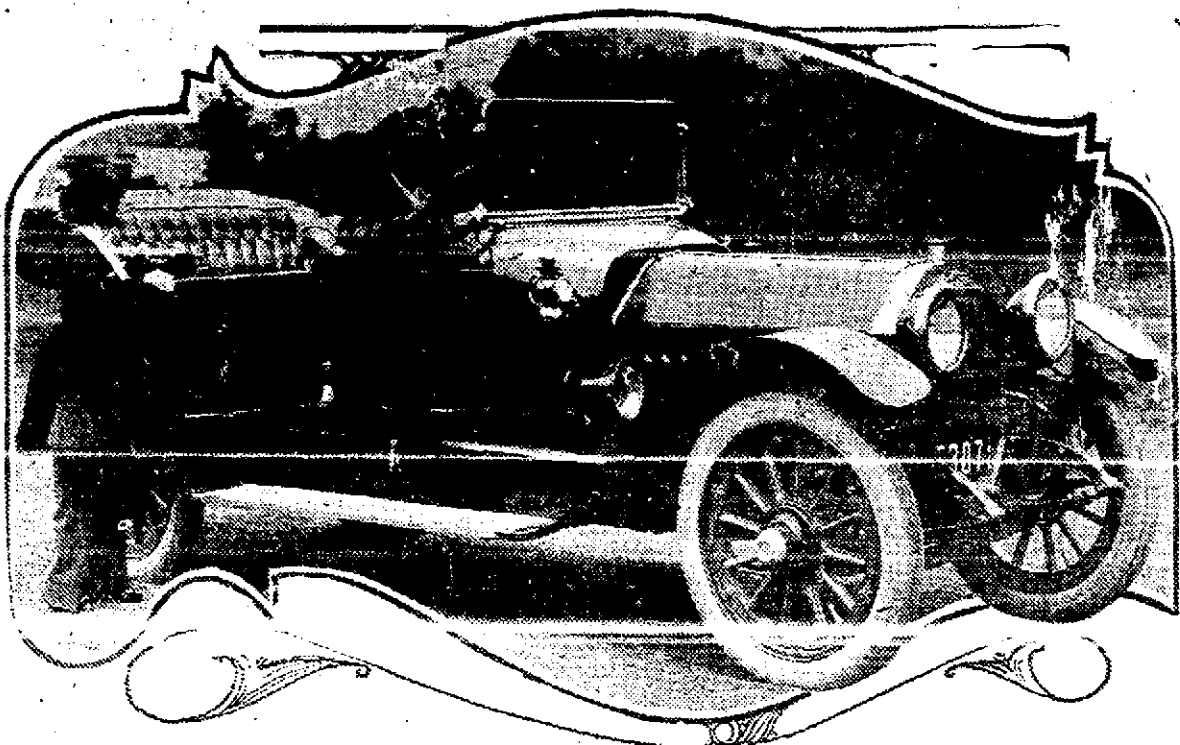

Father of Nebraska Populism "On the Job"

HASTINGS, Neb., July 28.—John M. Many of the old-time leaders of the once powerful party in this state are here for the convention, but the attendance is not expected to be large. The Populists are not fully decided on the question of independent action in the coming campaign.

Commissioner Fined for Auto Speeding

Commissioner H. D. Loveland came to grief on the San Joaquin county highway late yesterday afternoon, when he was arrested by County Traffic Officer Jeffery and charged with exceeding the speed limit. Loveland was traveling about 40 miles an hour. He was overtaken after a spirited chase. He paid a $25 fine.

mingled with the throng, standing close to the curb.

As to my adventures, they were not exactly thrilling, but they began at once when I accidentally trod on the trim foot of a pretty blond young woman in a blue suit. My contrite apology met with a baleful glare from a pair of pretty gray eyes. I tried in vain to keep the twinkle out of my eye, for though I was very sorry the fact that the girl's indignation was aroused more because her shoes were new than because I had hurt her foot appealed to my sense of humor. She dusted the slightly marred toe of her boot with a clean handkerchief, snatched angrily from her bag and I moved discreetly down the curb a few yards because I felt an overwhelming desire to laugh.

Being pointed out by an officer as Bonnie Burr was another adventure, and by the way I found a pretty gold scarf pin set with pearls. The owner may have same by applying to THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE office.

For a few minutes I stood close to three vivacious young women on the northwest corner, who were having a lot of fun. They were full of life, gay with the sheer joy of being alive and they kept things merry in my vicinity. With many infectious giggles they were planning what they would do with the $200 should they win THE TRIBUNE prize. Their remarks proved very entertaining to the smiling crowd. One wore a plaid suit, one was in green and the other had on a suit of a dark maroon shade.

MEETS FORMER PURSUER.

On the southeast corner I was surprised and amused to encounter quite a delegation of the old guard of searches from San Francisco. I almost collided with the tall woman in black suit, purple hat and veil, but my make-up was too much for her penetration.

I did not linger on the southeast corner, but crossed over to the southwest, where I encountered officer 85, who would have his little joke. I stared, he smiled and as I passed on he beckoned to a newsie on the corner and nodding in my direction said, "That's her."

That boy gazed at me in a serious manner as though doubtful whether to be in earnest or not. "She has blue eyes alright," he said. "Believe me, I'm with you." He paused, stared a moment, nodded his head. "That's her, alright."

But officer 85 laughed and the boy did not follow. Jovial 85 was only joking having no idea that he had actually pointed me out. Soon their attention was attracted elsewhere and I stood unchallenged on the corner.

WOMEN SLEUTHS.

Two young ladies stood beside me, both carrying copies of THE TRIBUNE. One wore a coat of green velvet.

Back on the northwest corner I noticed an active girl searcher, who wore a brown sweater and had her hair down her back. Another girl accompanied her. They sized me up with comical intentness but decided not to address me.

It was on the northwest corner that I found the scarfpin lying on the pavement close to the curb.

There was little real searching last evening, but I expect that Oaklanders will be thoroughly aroused and will search for me in earnest today.

STABBED IN SALOON ROW

Negro Goes to Hospital Following Fight Over Billiard Game.

As a result of a fight over a game of billiards, in a saloon on Washington street, Leslie Walker, a negro, is held in detention at the city prison while Osbourne Washington, with whom he was playing, is suffering from a severe knife wound in the left shoulder. The fight occurred last night. The two men were involved in a dispute and the fight followed hot words. The police intervened, and Washington was rushed to the Emergency Hospital, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. E. E. Dowdle. Walker will be held for examination.

NO SENATE FLOOR TEST.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senate Republicans, in conference today, decided not to filibuster against the trust bills. They agreed to them and will say so in speeches, but their main purpose is to bring about adjournment as soon as possible. When the Senate convened today discussion of the trade commission bill was resumed.

CLOUDBURST KILLS TWO.

the company recently undertaken. The bond and note-holders have by invitation of the refinancing committee named representative to carry on all negotiations.

BECOMES A CREDITOR.

Havens in his resignation takes cognizance of this fact, and disavows any intention to influence these delegates in their efforts. He becomes, by his own word, one of the creditors of the company by virtue of his holdings, but he is no longer an official having authority in its administrative or fiduciary affairs. His resignation reads:

"Oakland, Cal., July 17, 1914.
"To the Board of Directors of the Peoples Water Company, Oakland, Cal.: Gentlemen: In view of the earnest efforts now being made by various committees representing the bond holders, note holders and others interested in the financial affairs of the Peoples Water Company, and wishing to avoid even the slightest suspicion of retaining any official position in the directorate of the company that might be supposed to give me any personal or undue advantage over any other person or persons so interested, I desire to, and hereby do, tender my resignation as a member of the board of directors of the Peoples Water Company, and also as president of the company, and urgently request that such resignations be accepted forthwith. Voluntarily and unreservedly I desire to take my place among all others interested in the financial affairs of the company, claiming no superior rights or advantages for myself. Fully appreciating your many acts of kindness and uniform courtesy on all occasions, I am, yours sincerely,
"E. C. HAVENS."

Havens assumed the presidency of the Peoples Water Co. at the time he withdrew from the Realty Syndicate, the Oakland Traction, the Key Route and other concerns which he and F. M. Smith were associated in as founders.

OFFICIALS WITH HIM.

With him to the water company went several of the high officials of the syndicate and affiliated companies, including Edward Engs as attorney and W. F. Kelly, former general manager of the Traction Company, who became vice-president of the Peoples Water Company.

Later F. A. Leach Sr., former director of mints at Washington, D. C., returned to Oakland as a private citizen, and was made general manager of the water company.

During his tenure as president Havens has had considerable influence on the relations of the water company to the city of Oakland. Rate litigation of long standing had been settled just before his regime by an agreement with the city, effected when Louis Titus was president. This pact still holds and governs rate fixing proceedings year by year.

But after the litigation had been ended the agitation for municipal ownership arose, and was espoused by Havens. His offer of sale to a metropolitan water district was widely advertised during the recent campaign in which the project for a district failed of the necessary majority.

THIRTIETH IS BACK FROM ALASKA

Regiment to Remain at Presidio Until Close of 1915 Exposition.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—After an absence of two years at Alaskan posts, the Thirtieth Infantry, commanded by Colonel Frank B. McCoy, came into port late last night on the transport Buford, and this morning disembarked at the transport docks and marched to the Presidio, where they will make their home until the close of the Exposition.

At the Presidio the Thirtieth will be in cantonment and under canvas. The quarters left vacant by the Sixth, Sixteenth and Twelfth regiments will remain unoccupied awaiting the return of those regiments, which are shortly to be withdrawn from the Mexican border.

Since the departure of the Thirtieth, the border has been quiet, there being only a small detachment of the Coast Artillery Corps at the post. The arrival of the Thirtieth this morning things began to hum, and as the officers and men are well known here, having been stationed at the Presidio for years before going to Alaska, army circles will soon resume their normal busy state.

The Thirtieth was organized in 1861 and has seen service twice in the Philippines, at the Mexican border during the first retail uprising and in Alaska.

The officers who arrived on the Buford with the Thirtieth are:

Colonel Joseph R. O'Neil, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph R. O'Neil, Major John J. Bradley and Major William Brooke, Captain Isaac Irwin, Adjutant Captain William E. Welsh, Captain Dennis E. Nolan, Captain George M. Grimes, Halsey E. Yates, William I. Reed, Ernest E. Hingham, Surgeon John L. Bond, William A. Carlson, Charles E. Sawyer, Raymond O. Barton and Charles H. Corlett.

BIG INHERITANCE TAX PAID IN SMALL CHANGE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—If you don't believe it, count 'em—four hundred twenty-two thousand one hundred thirty-nine dollars, a two-bit piece, a silver dime, two Buffalo nickels and four copper pennies, one of the latter green from old age.

That's the amount of inheritance tax yesterday paid by the Mercantile National Bank of San Francisco for the estate of the late William G. Irwin to John E. McDougall, the City Treasurer. Incidentally those $42,139 and a few odd cents represent the largest individual inheritance tax ever paid in the history of this city or California.

Irwin was one of the several Hawaiian so-called "sugar kings." When he landed at Honolulu, at a time when it was not such a fashionable resort as it is today, he was worth just 100 cents. When he died, which was recently, he left a fortune variously estimated at between twelve and fifteen million dollars.

CANDIDACY IS ANNOUNCED HE WOULD GO TO ASSEMBLY

LOUIS SCHAFER, CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR ASSEMBLYMAN FROM THIRTY-EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Louis Schaffer, president of the Seventh Street Improvement Club, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination as Assemblyman from the Thirty-eighth District. Schaffer has been an Oaklander for 40 years, a business man and a staunch Republican. In his platform he has incorporated the following planks:

"I believe in the lowest possible tax rate consistent with actual requirements. I favor the abolition of useless offices and needless laws. I am in favor of the development of Oakland's harbor on the estuary and on the western waterfront, as it is Oakland's hope and chief asset. I am opposed to annexing Oakland with San Francisco."

GOLF CHAMPIONS FACE DOUBLE TASK

Sixty-four Survivors in Western Amateur Struggle Play Qualifying Round.

KENT COUNTRY CLUB, Grand Rapids, Mich., July 28.—Sixty-four golfers, survivors in the struggle for the Western amateur championship, faced a double task today. Early this forenoon they started out to play the qualifying round of 18 holes. The 32 turning in the lowest score for the two medal play contests were eligible to compete in the first round of match play, which was to start at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

R. B. Martin of Hammond, Ind., who led the field yesterday with a score of 72, was paired with W. D. Mahoney of Evanston, Chicago. Charles Evans Jr. of Edgewater had Howard B. Lee, the Detroit star, for his partner, while Robert A. Gardner of High Vale teed off with W. J. Foye of Omaha.

Considerable interest was also attached to the pairing, which brought together Perry Adair of Atlanta and J. W. Hubbell of Des Moines. Both youngsters are still in their teens, have been playing fast golf and Hubbell, at least, was expected to survive the last medal play round.

J. W. Hubbell of Des Moines, who scored 74 in the elimination round, was the first of the leaders to fall down badly in the qualifications test. He took 80 strokes for the 18 holes, 45 going out and 44 returning. His 150 for the two rounds put him in the "double" class, so far as the possibility of his being eligible for match play was concerned.

Norman Faunce of the Garfield Club again played carefully and consistently. His card of 77 gave him 155 for the 36 holes, which was the best of the early performances. W. H. Gardner Jr. of Eau Claire made the circuit in 79, 2 strokes more than he took yesterday.

ALLEGED QUACK ARRESTED.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—A wire was received today from New York telling of the arrest there of Arthur A. Penn of the Chinese Remedial Company of this city. Penn was one of those indicted in the campaign against alleged quack practitioners, and he will be brought here for trial.

DRY GOODS FIRM FAILS

People's Store on Washington Street Assigns.

For the benefit of the creditors, the People's Store, 922 Washington Street, made an assignment to the Board of Trade in June.

Falling to raise the entire amount necessary to liquidate the liabilities, an understanding has been arrived at with the creditors by which the People's Store will be permitted to reopen tomorrow in an endeavor to dispose of enough of the large stock of drygoods, ladies' and children's wear, blankets, comforters, etc., to obtaining the balance of the cash, understood to be in the neighborhood of $12,000 which must be paid to the creditors within thirty days.

The great reductions in price of every article in the store as shown in their advertisement in Sunday's issue of this paper, proves that they are fully determined to get the $12,000 within the time limit.

"It's an ill wind, etc." Oakland's thrifty and economical housewife will be the one to benefit in this instance.

FINDS DEPRESSION IS WORLD-WIDE

Sec. Redfield Thinks, However, Condition Is Rapidly Passing Away.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—"There is a world wide depression in commerce," according to Secretary of Commerce Redfield.

"But," he adds, "this condition is rapidly passing away." Marked fluctuations are shown in imports and exports for the eight months preceding May, 1914, he declared in analyzing the tariff statistics for these periods. While there was an increase in the imports of raw materials amounting to $66,750,438, he showed the total increase in imports for the eight months was only $55,336,983. This difference, he said, was due to an "increase of imports of fully finished manufactures being offset by a greater decrease in the imports of partly finished manufactures."

LESS FOOD EXPORTED.

"There will be observed," he declares, "a decrease in the exports of foodstuffs and a corresponding increase in the exports of manufactures ready for consumption. In other words it is in the line of finished manufactures that we maintain our foreign business well. It is in the same line of finished manufactures that our imports have grown relatively small. There is nothing in the statement to justify fear on the part of American manufacturers."

Secretary Redfield says the data shows "that our competing power in manufacturing is well sustained because at a time when our commercial rivals are eager to sell and unwilling to buy, the line of exports of raw materials and manufactures is depressed relatively little and the line of imports of finished manufactures shows a relatively small increase."

The statistics show that $164,239,515 worth of goods were imported, compared to $133,723,713 in May, 1913. On the other hand it shows exports amounting to $151,732,519 for May, 1914, compared to $124,697,422 for the corresponding month last year, a decrease of 18.9 per cent.

TO PRUNE STENOGRAPHERS.
The Senate committee on concurrent expenses, which long has grided itself on standing for economy with a large "E" has begun an onslaught on "mandatory stenographers." The stenographers who take the rapid fire debate and the long speeches on the floor of the Senate and who average about $4000 a year each, are not involved in this economy spurt, as it is felt that they richly earn their money. It is the young men who take down the testimony of investigating committees whose earnings may be pruned.

There is an understood rate which has been charged by these stenographers for taking testimony of 41 per printed page. That is, after their notes have been printed, each page in the pamphlet entitled the stenographer to $1. This was formerly $1.25, which shows the length to which the committee was willing to go.

INCLUDED INSERTS.

Recently the committee received a bill which a little figuring showed was $10 too much, from one of the committee stenographers. "If you about this," demanded Senator John Sharp Williams of the scribe. "There are 40 pages of inserts," pointed out the stenographer, meaning that he had charged the $1 for each printed page of matter which had been included in the record, but which he had not taken down in shorthand. "All this work in that connection consisted of marking on his typewritten page, 'Insert here. No. 1' and then placing material which took 40 pages of the pamphlet in its proper order."

COMMITTEE MAKES RULING.
One of the committee members called attention to the fact that over on the House side the stenographers were paid only 30 cents a printed page, and were allowed nothing for inserts.

The committee then made a compromise ruling, and decided that hereafter stenographers shall be paid 25 cents for each printed page of inserts which shall be included in testimony they take. The committee also decided that in cases where a stenographer was required to make carbon copies, he should be paid five cents additional for each folio, or for each 100 words.

Many of the Senate stenographers travel to and from the Capitol in automobiles, and great was the jar of the thing when a suggestion was made that these places might be filled up with service roads, and no committee stenographer paid more than $400.

ventured out to examine and then looked sheepishly at the speaker. "It's only a string of sea kelp," they announced. Marie had been on a visit to the seaside and had brought back a piece of kelp over 20 feet in length. She had eyes fitted in and a serpent head affixed and the kelp made a very terrifying monster when seen in the sunlight.

SERPENT CAUSES HOTEL COMMOTION

Maids Flee Hysterically, Axes Are Seized, But Little Marie Is Heroine.

"There's a snake in the room." At the dreadful news imparted hysterical tones by a breathless maid at the Hotel Oakland who had seen the reptile with her own eyes, other maids scurried off in frantic haste and valiant bell boys in the midst of the confusion little Marie Theresa Lockridge, daughter of one of the guests at the big hostelry alone stood undismayed. In fact she wondered what the commotion was about.

One of the fleeing maids warned her of the presence of a "horrible snake" in the room. Marie only laughed and marched boldly along the corridor and into the room. Back she came with the big "serpent" held firmly by the neck, and she did this without blinking an eye and its "body" hanging limp. "See, I've killed it," she announced triumphantly with just the suggestion of a snicker. The more daring bellboys

BOYS ORGANIZE AGAINST TIP-GRABBING TRUST

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—A new attack is planned on the pockets of the man who enters a San Francisco hotel or cafe. A new exploitation of feminine good looks has been planned for the benefit, not of the good looking but of "the man behind." And a novel war is to be waged for the protection of hat-owner, good looking, and the man at present on the job!

The boys who attend the hat racks in the various hotels and cafes of the city have combined in alarm to ward off the approach of a formidable attack on their livelihoods. According to their committee, which consulted Attorney Heesler for a method of warfare, a New York tip-grabbing trust which is reaching out all over the country, is about to pounce on San Francisco.

If it is allowed to pounce, the boys row in charge of the racks will be forced out of their places. Consequently papers are being drawn up to attack any invasion of California by the trust as a "violation of trade." The Supreme Court of the United States is to be arbiter in the matter.

The dreaded trust is described as a corporation which secures privileges in all the hotels and cafes of a city, installs pretty girls in charge of hat racks, and collects the tips the hat-owner dares not refrain from giving. The pretty girl is forbidden any kind of a pocket and behind the scenes an argus eyed employee of the corporation coldly confiscates the tribute to beauty and checks it up on a cash register. The looter is looted. If it were not for the fact that the girls are robbed of their well-earned tips the committee states that chivalry would prevent them from fighting competition.

"SWAT FLY" CAMPAIGN IN INTEREST OF CHILDREN

NEW YORK, July 28.—"Swatting the fly," always a popular movement in the summer, is being indulged in to a marked degree on the East Side, where thousands of children are housed in very poor conditions. The Association for Improving the Conditions of the Poor is taking charge of the fly-killing campaign in that section and doing really a great work. Thousands of children are kept under personal observation of members of this organization; hundreds of yards of netting have been distributed among the poorer families, to put over baby carriages and around windows, and fly paper has been distributed in wholesale fashion.

WHITMAN IS CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF N. Y.

NEW YORK, July 28.—District Attorney Charles S. Whitman will file his petition for the gubernatorial nomination at the Republican primary, according to an announcement issued by him last night. In the statement he asks Harvey D. Hittman, who has announced himself as in the field for the nomination, to pledge himself to support the candidate chosen as he, Whitman, says he will do. Whitman says he doubtless could have had the support of Colonel Roosevelt in his efforts to secure the Republican nomination if he had been willing to submit to Colonel Roosevelt's dictation. "I did not submit to it and I did not get it," he adds.

NOVA SCOTIA QUAKE.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 28.—Two earth shocks of 12 and 6 seconds duration from an easterly direction are felt on the southwest shore of Nova Scotia from Nahans Bay to Shelburne, a distance of 100 miles at noon today. No damage was done. At 3 p. m., however, the shocks were so sharp that the inhabitants fled from their houses fearing they would collapse.

AVIATOR FLIES OVER ALPS WITH PASSENGER

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 28.—The greatest Alpine flight on record with a passenger was accomplished yesterday by the Italian aviator, Achille Landini, who was accompanied by Dr. Lampugnani. They left Novara, Italy, at 5 a. m. and traversed the Monte Rosa range, 15,217 feet in height. They landed safely at Chas at 7.50 o'clock, thus taking nearly three hours to cover a straight 100 miles, but they lost their way in the clouds and suffered greatly from the cold. The Swiss authorities gave an official reception last night in celebration of the event.

FINDS SKELETON WITH BULLET THROUGH SKULL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Autopsy Surgeon Harry Clifford of the coroner's office, spent several hours this morning examining the skeleton of a man who was found in a thicket last night near Lake Merced. A .38-caliber revolver of the automatic type was found by the remains. The skull showed a hole in its base, disclosing the probable manner in which death came.

Stas Christofferson, the aviator, while passing through the woods, between the lake and the south end life saving station, made the discovery. The brush had spread over and around the remains. For that reason the body had probably lain concealed for at least two years and only chance led to its being found.

Are Wrinkles Caused by Modern Social Life?

Often the papers and magazines have made the rather broad statement that modern social life is the only cause for wrinkles. Undoubtedly modern social life contributes some to the existence of wrinkles, but one cannot say it is the cause. However, the wrinkles do come and old age has never made for attractiveness, so we use the best means to resist the tell-tale marks. A search for the very best in wrinkle eradicators has brought us to this formula for an economical vegetable jelly cream as the simplest wrinkle remover and skin stimulator. Its mask-like action protects the surface while it stimulates the blood vessels to perform their up-building work. Just get from your druggist an ounce of almondin, put it into a fruit jar and add half a pint of water. Before retiring apply rather thickly over wrinkled or flabby surface and allow it to dry. It will harden rapidly and you will note a slight tightening of the skin. In the morning remove with hot water and note the immediate effect which you will find lasting.

KNOWLAND TO GET BIG CONTRA COSTA VOTE

RICHMOND, July 28.—That Joseph R. Knowland, candidate for the United States senate, will get at least two-thirds of the vote cast in Contra Costa county at the coming primary election is the declaration made today by Dr. C. L. Abbott, known as the "wisest man politically in the county." Dr. Abbott's election estimates have long been taken by those interested in things political and with a Republican registration of nearly 80 per cent of the vote in the county and no opposition heard at all to the former third district congressman, the figures look to be reasonable.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC, CITY MAY BE QUARANTINED

RICHMOND, July 28.—Richmond may go under a quarantine for "measles," Dr. Charles R. Blake, city health commissioner, made the announcement last evening of his intention to close the public schools, the Sunday schools and the "movies" of the city until the present epidemic of measles is taken in hand. At places where children congregate, either for instruction or enjoyment, he declares, are to be shut down unless the people take a personal interest in the welfare of their neighbors and keep their infected children at home.

Third and fourth honors went to Tony Prior of San Francisco and H. F. Whilton of Gresham, Or., by a score of 177. Harry Ogilvie of Lindsay, Tulare county, carried off fifth place honors with a score of 175, the miss and out event going to D. C. Davidson of Modesto.

FREDERICKS INVADES SONOMA CO.

Other Candidates for Office Are Enlivening Campaign

Captain John D. Fredericks spoke at a large meeting in Santa Rosa last night, presided over by former Congressman J. A. Barham, during which he reviewed the work of the present state administration and explained how the principal legislative enactments claimed by Johnson and his supporters were the work of men elected as Republicans, serving as Republicans and who are still Republicans. The candidate made a fine impression on his audience and was repeatedly applauded for his utterances. Previous to going to Santa Rosa, Captain Fredericks was at Petaluma, where he was a guest at luncheon given by prominent citizens. He also visited other parts of Sonoma county during the day and at night was escorted to the county seat by a large delegation from the outside points. The "Fredericks Flying Squadron," under the leadership of Leo Pockwitz, consisting of five seven-seated automobiles, returned from a trip through San Jose, Coyote, Madrone, San Juan, Salinas and Del county will be practically a unit for his selection as standard bearer. In San Francisco, the home of Sidney M. Van Wyck Jr., clubs favoring Curtin have been formed in many sections of the city and an active campaign is being prosecuted.

While Curtin is invading his home town Van Wyck is going through the coast counties. He left today in an automobile for a tour of the west slope from San Francisco to San Diego. Curtin has covered most of that territory already. Reports from Santa Cruz county, Monterey and San Luis Obispo are to the effect that Edward White has them practically solid and that he will not doubt carry San Benito. In that section there are a number of Progressives who have registered as Democrats in order to vote for White at the primaries. It is related that Watsonville, his home town, will doubtless not cast more than 100 votes for other candidates.

Edward White, Democratic candidate, spoke at the Larkspur Hotel in San Francisco last night to an attentive audience. White left this morning for an auto trip through Sonoma and Napa counties.

According to the records in the office of the secretary of state at Sacramento there are 770 aspirants for state and congressional offices for the primary election. There are twelve candidates for governor, eight for lieutenant governor, five for secretary of state, five for superior general, a dozen or so for the state board of equalization in the various districts, eight for state treasurer and from two to half a dozen for congress in the various districts.

J. W. Stetson, Progressive, of Alameda county, failed to qualify as a candidate for delegate to the state convention of his party and his name will not appear on the ballot. A number of assemblymen in various parts of the state also failed.

It is said the University of California bonding act has not yet qualified, but that the backers may be able to get the requisite number of signatures in time to get the measure on the ballot before August 4. The Royal Arch amendment prohibiting voting on the wet and dry proposition more than once in eight years seems likely to qualify.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland expresses himself as more than satisfied with his trip through the south and declares he does not want a better outlook for success at the primary elections. He declares he was given splendid receptions wherever he appeared and that meetings held by Mrs. Knowland were great successes. Mrs. Knowland relates that the reception tendered them by the Southern California Woman's Republican Federation was declared by those competent to speak, as the best attended meeting of its kind held during the campaign. Returns from San Diego will, say Mr. Knowland, be a big surprise in some quarters. Summing up the results of his tour Mr. Knowland said:

"My steady gains in the southern tributaries to the consistent fight made for the past ten years in Congress for the protection of the citrus fruit industry. People of the northern portion of the state do not realize what this means to those of the southern portion. Coupled with my fight on behalf of this most important southern industry is the work done in the interest of the Los Angeles harbor, the thing being something which the southland appears to feel worthy of recognition and reward."

The Taxpayers' Association of Eden township, Alameda county, has endorsed the candidacy of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland for the Republican nomination of United States Senator on account of his stand in opposition to the reduction of the tariff on sugar, which would mean the loss of the sugar industry in Alameda county. The resolutions close as follows:

"Therefore, be it resolved, That we, as citizens and taxpayers of Alameda county, do hereby commend his candidacy to the farmers of the state of California and thank him most heartily for his support of our interests."

James D. Phelan, Democratic candidate for the nomination for United States Senator, will address a meeting in the Macdonough theater here tonight. The gathering will be held under the auspices of the Democratic county central committee and will be presided over by J. J. McDonald, chairman. Mr. Phelan returned to the bay cities this morning after a tour of Santa Clara county. Yesterday he addressed the Santa Clara Woman's Club in the afternoon and last night spoke at Palo Alto. Tomorrow night Mr. Phelan will be the speaker at a meeting in Richmond, held in the auditorium of the Lincoln school. Berkeley Democrats have organized a Phelan club, with a membership of seventy-five, with R. A. Berry, president; R. B. Bell, secretary, and E. D. Fitzgerald, treasurer. Mr. Phelan is scheduled to deliver addresses at San Luis Obispo Thursday night and at Ventura Friday night.

Fred H. Hall, Democratic candidate for governor, wires his headquarters that his trip through the prospects are favorable. He is in the northern coast counties and will return to San Francisco through the upper Sacramento valley, visiting Red Bluff, Redding, Sacramento and other centers. Mr. Berkley has formed a Hall club with L. S. Gibbs, president; Mrs. Bertha E. Gibbs, formerly of Hayes Valley, who, as Miss Bertha E. Daly, was deputy registrar of voters under Harry Zernansky, secretary. Former residents of Kern and Tulare counties have formed a Hall club in San Francisco.

Colonel H. D. Loveland, member of the state railroad commission, at a salary of $8000 a year, and Freeman H. Bloodgood, member of the board of control, at $400, have been sent to the Mother Lode counties to speak on behalf of the Progressives. The trip will end at Placerville Saturday night.

Two more of the newspapers claimed by Shortridge as supporting his candidacy have written the Knowland headquarters as follows: "Reedley Ledger—As to reference being made to the Leuger's stand regarding Mr. Shortridge's candidacy, wish to state that this paper is not supporting Mr. Shortridge's candidacy. No comment, editorial or otherwise, was ever given by us as to his fight."

Among the many candidates who spoke at the Fremont high school and gave their views and qualifications for high office was Attorney T. L. Christianson, who aspires to be district attorney of Alameda county. He promised to economize by having the number of assistants from seventeen to eight or ten.

Charles King, Democratic candidate for governor, has returned to San Francisco to address a tour of the county in the northern part of the state. He invaded Del Norte, the first time a candidate for governor ever appeared there, so his managers claim. King is going to stay in San Francisco for a few days. Mrs. King accompanied her husband on the tour throughout the northern part of the state.

W. W. Cribbins, Republican candidate for the Assembly from the Thirty-sixth district, addressed the 800 employees of the California Cotton mills at a noon-day meeting today. Mr. Cribbins was introduced to the audience by William Rutherford, the president and general manager of the concern. His address was devoted to a discussion of the kind of legislation calculated to make business better.

Constable William C. Allen, better known as "Bill," is making a campaign. Allen is known by practically every one in his district and it is expected that he will poll a heavy vote. Allen has made a fine record as a police official, and given him by his constituents for bravery at the time he captured "Dutch" Hansen robbing the Fruitvale Lumber Company and killed A. J. Kennedy, Hansen's confederate.

At Melrose Civic Center last night County Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick delivered an address on the conduct of his office, and he said: "The incumbent does not make promises. His request for votes is based entirely upon his record. It is therefore of concern to the voter what that record has been, and I know of but one way for the voter to get the character of such record. He must do so either by consulting those who are acquainted with it or depend upon its general reputation. I shall be glad therefore to have you consult with superintendents, principals and teachers with reference to the professional character of the work of the present administration and to consult with business people coming in contact with the office as to the scope and character of its business side. There is a large and varied business side to this office not understood by those who do not come in contact with it. The bookkeeping for every one of the schools supported for school purposes, including Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, as well as the outside, pass through this office, and there is a tremendous correspondence, certification of teachers and various kinds of clerical, administrative and professional work. The assistants in this office must be educational people as well as clerical; they cannot be mere clerks."

The present administration has been sanely progressive. There have been many changes made. Industrial education, manual training and domestic science have been introduced into nearly half the schools of the county where they were not before. During my term, Accredited schools reaching a high standard without examination has been instituted. Time does not permit of the mention of many of the improvements that have been made, but above all the superintendent himself being required by law to visit the schools but once a year, has actually visited them on an average of five or six times a year and sought to make himself helpful to teachers and children by direct personal conference and by finding if satisfactory then without regard to sex, personal ambition, politics or any other consideration but efficiency, vote to continue the present administration.

Republicans of Livermore are organizing a Republican club, petitions for signatures being in circulation and at the office of the local newspaper. The title of the organization will be the Young Men's Republican Club of Livermore. It is related that a large number of active members of the party are signing and that the club will be a strong factor in the local political situation.

Berkeley citizens have formed a strong organization in the interest of Frederick S. Stratton, candidate for judge of the Third District Court of Appeal. The Third District Court of Appeal, Warren Gregory is president; Marshall Evans, secretary; and Warring Wilkinson, Henry P. Jackson, C. J. Hyl, Charles C. Elliott, Thomas O. Huxley and S. O. Johnson are the members of the executive committee.

The following communication has been received by THE TRIBUNE and is self-explanatory: Editor of THE TRIBUNE: We the undersigned, send you the following letter on January 21, 1908: "We, the undersigned colored employees of Train No. 3, Chicago (the Great Northern), are writing you to express our appreciation of the kind, generous and humane treatment extended to our poor unfortunate colored prisoner, brought from Kansas City to Oakland by Sheriff Frank Barnett and wife. We are pressing our thanks to the people of Alameda county. We love them for their kindness, and our prayers are for them. (Signed) J. R. Trot, A. Ellison, H. B. Humphrey, J. E. Alexander, O. Washington, Johnson, William Norman, Henry Payne, Albert Madison and Sam Corinth."

Frank Barnett is a candidate to succeed himself in the coming election. This

Mrs. Thomas Mein was elected honorary chairman of the Helen K. Williams Club, organized in this city yesterday, with Mrs. Frederick A. Campbell acting secretary.

Mrs. Mein, who is deeply interested in furthering Mrs. Williams' candidacy for the lieutenant-governorship of California, issued a general invitation to attend a gathering at her home, on the corner of Lake and Madison streets.

A large number availed themselves of the invitation, with the result that about 100 signatures of prominent Oakland women attest the fact that they have become charter members in the organization.

Mrs. Mein, whose name as hostess is well known, entertained her guest at an elaborate tea, which sustained the occasion for fulfilling their pledges to the citizens of the State of California, and that we pledge ourselves to work from now until the final election for the success of the Progressive party and the principles for which it stands.

PRIVATE SCHOOL ARRANGES CLASSES

Ilsen Shorthand Institute Commences Fall Work.

The longest established private shorthand school in this city, the Frederick Ilsen (Oakland) Shorthand Institute now enters on its fifteenth successful year and is enrolling students for its fall classes.

It has an individual policy in arranging for its Day Classes. These are exclusively for young women. It is the belief of the head instructor, Mr. Ilsen, that this makes for uniformity in the work, which, with the refined surroundings and small private classes, will appeal to those young women and their parents who desire a dignified and scholarly training that leads to the better office position.

Before entering actively on teaching, Mr. Ilsen had an extensive experience in business and as a practical shorthand writer. The students thus receive instruction from a thoroughly practical viewpoint.

The school is located at 529 Twelfth street, with the elevator entrance in the Blake Block, 1121 Washington st.

WHY SAN FRANCISCO IS "GRABBING" FOR OAKLAND.

Presuming the impossible and admitting for the sake of argument that San Francisco has been successful and annexed Oakland!

Let us first, however, look at conditions. According to the statistics for the year 1913, at the end of the year Oakland, with a population estimated at 225,000 had a debt of $6,585,655, or approximately $29.25 per capita. San Francisco, with a population estimated at 500,000, had a debt of $34,040,503, or approximately $68 per capita.

Now let us assume the annexation. Combine the two cities and we find a population of 725,000 with a combined debt of $40,626,158, or approximately $56 per capita. In such an event Oakland would be assuming an additional burden of approximately $27 per capita, while San Francisco would be shaking off a burden of $12 per capita, quite a relief for the town across the bay.

But this is only an accidental figure in the total loss that would be Oakland's. Once swallowed up by San Francisco and by reason of numerical supremacy, improvements here would languish, while over there they would flourish, because every dollar that could be proposed on the continental side of the bay would be side tracked, because San Francisco would want the large bulk of the business. Nothing that San Francisco could capture would be left free.

San Francisco wants Oakland and other east bay towns for purposes of exploitation and to add to her numerical strength of course. San Francisco is jealous of her growing sister to the south, Los Angeles, and does not want it said that Los Angeles is the metropolis of California. By the same token in ten years more San Francisco will be jealous of Oakland for the same reasons, for this is the coming city of the state, as time will demonstrate.

It is noted that the apologists for the movement who live across the bay and edit "rabbit editions" for Oakland use are now declaring they have no designs on this side. This being true, why was the original plan formulated at a conference between city officials of Oakland, Los Angeles and San Francisco, changed? The excuse comes too late. San Francisco's designs are too well known.

The response to the petitions for initiating the "Oakland plan" of consolidation is the signing by thousands all over the state. The "Oakland plan" will undoubtedly carry to San Francisco's discomfiture. The east bay cities do not propose to be made the tail of the San Francisco kite for the promise of the future is too great to be sacrificed, and the people of California will endorse Oakland and Alameda county in this position. San Francisco will recall that two years ago her effort to cross the bay was defeated by more than 100,000. The returns next November will be even greater.

"The ballot of 1914 is a challenge to California citizenship," declared State Senator Thompson in an address at Los Angeles. Right! Also a challenge to the patience of the citizenship.

Two prospectors near Yreka recently took $7000 in gold from a new ledge in ten days. They sold a quarter interest in the claim for $5000 more. The first miners of the State did not get it all by any means.

It is hard to keep the Colonel out of the limelight. The libel suit brought by William Barnes of New York against him has given him another hold on publicity.

ENGLAND LEADS IN EFFORT FOR PEACE.

Conditions between Russia and Austria are strained almost to the breaking point, yet we hope to see war averted and believe it will be. England is leading in a movement for peace, Italy has responded to a note from Sir Edward Grey inviting her to assist in mediation, and while Germany had last night made no reply, it was understood the government is favorable to the plan suggested.

As to the Serbian situation there appears to be little hope for the little kingdom. Austria will doubtless conquer it and annex it. Austria has declared herself on this point, asserting that the difficulties of the situation are between herself and Serbia, and admit of no mediation, and it appears that Germany and Italy, her partners in the triple alliance, sustain her in the position taken.

In the event Austria moves on Serbia we look to see a short but decisive struggle. Austria is great and powerful, Serbia small and weak. But between Russia and Austria we look for no war, believing the mediating powers will be successful in maintaining peace.

The Chico Record prints the following slap at our ownest own governor: "Four years more of Governor Johnson and the problem of the unemployed will have been solved in California, for the State commissions and their subordinate positions will be ample to furnish employment for all."

WATCH OUT, PETALUMA! CHINESE CHICKENS NEXT!

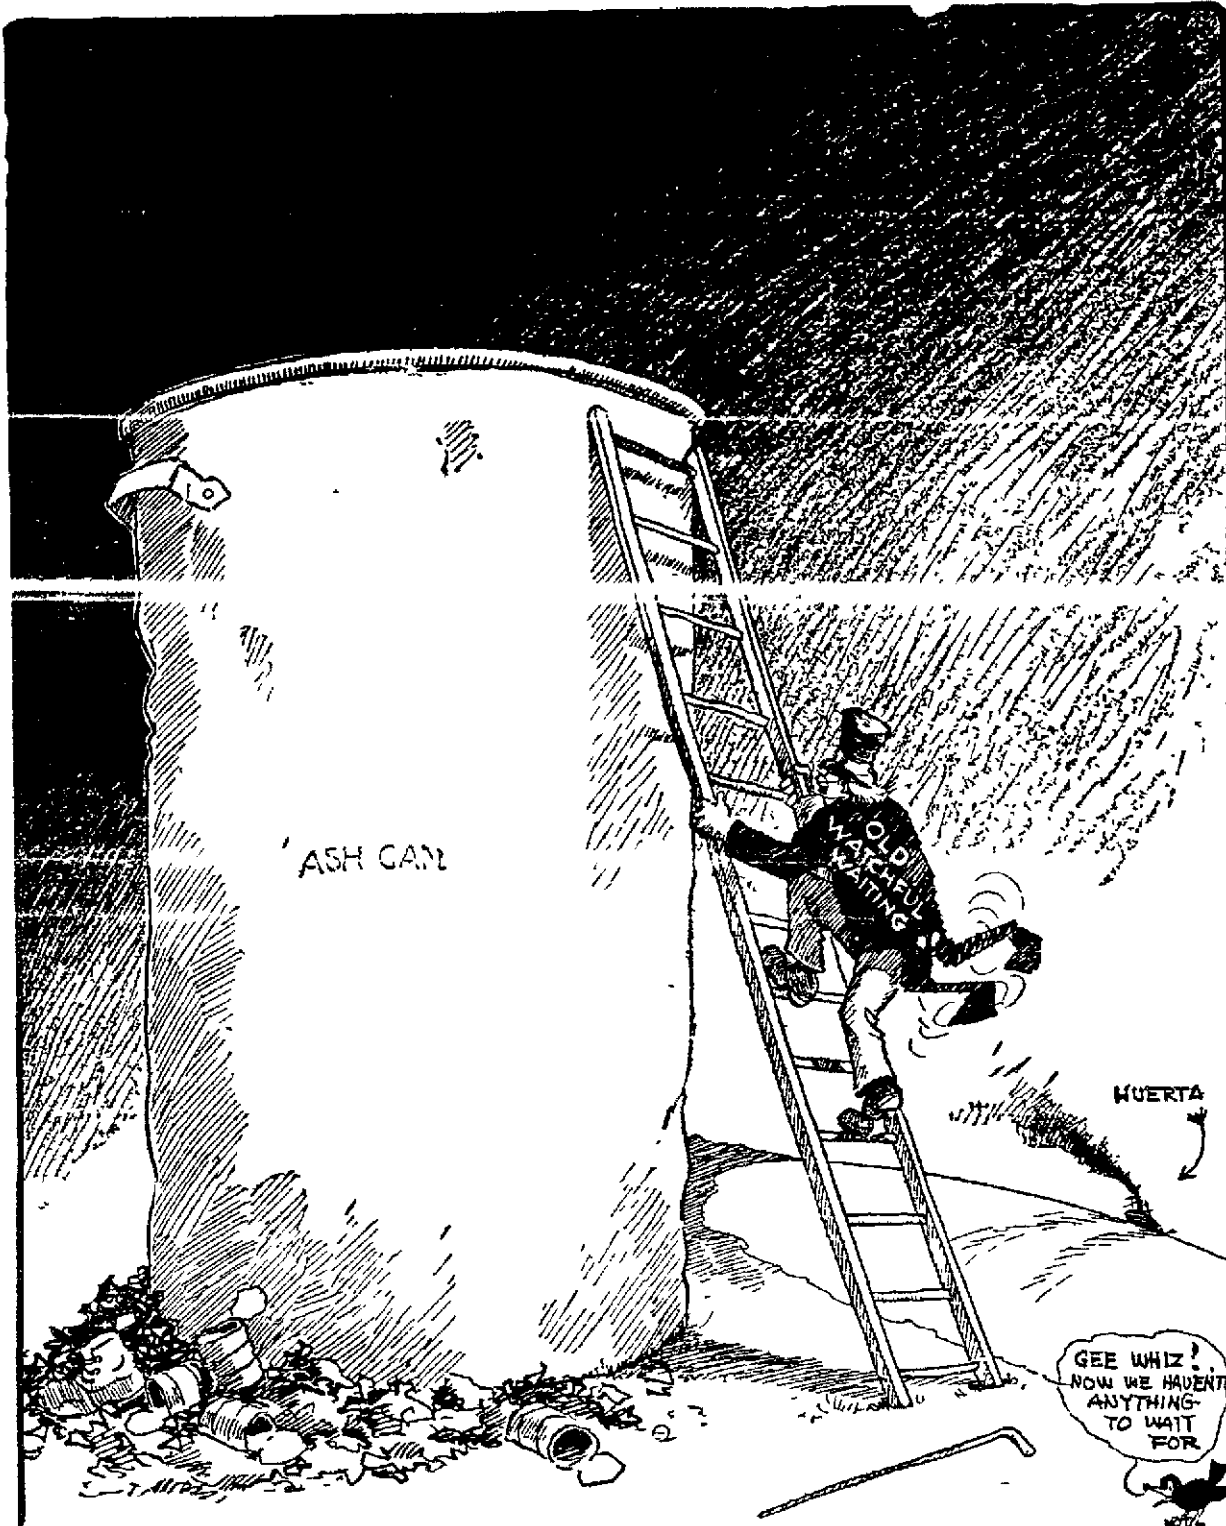

Chinese eggs are not the only menace to the poultry industry of California. Chickens are coming. It is learned from the United States consul at Dalny, or Dairen, Japanese leased territory, that inquiries have been made by American dealers concerning the possibility of increasing the poultry supply of the country by the importation of chickens from China.

Manchuria appears to be the source of supply, not only of the eggs, but the chickens. In Manchuria chickens are not graded as broilers, roasters, fryers, etc., as the Chinese are uninformed as to such classifications and simply sell their fowls at so much per piece. Poultry raising in that country is not carried on under the same conditions as in Europe or America. The Chinese raise chickens, and have raised them for the purpose of eggs, not meat, and as a result the fowls marketed abroad and at home are old ones, whose egg laying has ceased. In general chickens in China are not fed, but must "rustle" for themselves. Consequently the stocks marketed have in the past, been of poor quality, lean and attenuated, the average weight of these old fowls, dressed, rarely exceeding two pounds. For obvious reasons exporting this kind of poultry in a frozen state would not be a source of profit because of disagreeable color and marked inferiority in quality.

But the Chinese are people of quick perceptions and with the markets of the United States, particularly those of the Pacific Coast, opened for eggs, they now seek sales for their fowls. Therefore the Chinese poultry exporters have adopted new methods for feeding prior to shipment. The fowls are placed in specially built wooden structures with compartments, each capable of containing twenty chickens. They are then fed for two or three weeks on a mixture of flour, beef tallow and milk. During the twenty-four hours previous to killing only milk is given them, so that the color of the flesh will be improved. The killing procedure consists in first driving a needle into the brain to render the bird unconscious, and then cutting the vein inside the throat, this method preventing the blood from spreading over the feathers while it is hanging. The fattening process has been highly satisfactory and the shipments made by cold storage to London and other places have been such as to warrant an invasion of the American markets. These fowls are sold at from twenty to thirty cents, American money, the Chinese employed in dressing receiving about fifteen cents a day. It is related that one firm recently shipped 200,000 fowls and 400,000 pheasants to London. As there are several firms now engaged in business, the

The Democratic tariff, reducing as it did the duty on eggs, has created havoc among Coast poultrymen; what shall be said when the Chinese hen becomes a competitor? Herein is found another reason for the return of the Republican party, with its protection of American industries, to power. It is safe to assert that the poultrymen of California and other sections of California will be quick to perceive the danger and will vote according to their interests.

GOOD-BYE, FOLKS!

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

PRESENT PRIMARY LAW SHOULD BE AMENDED.

At the earliest moment the primary law now on the statute books should be amended. One of its fallacies is found in the provision making the legislative candidates of a political party the members of the political convention of such party, charged with the duty of drawing up the state platforms. The people have nothing to say in this respect. They nominate a set of men and the successful aspirants for places on the ballot meet and formulate a declaration of principles to suit themselves. This may be all right for the candidates, but it affords no opportunity for popular expression.

There is another point to be considered also, that being the fact that oftentimes legislative candidates secure more than one nomination. As the state conventions are held the same day, it is obvious that such candidates cannot be present at more than one, hence, as will be the case this year where "pussy footers" have forced their way on more than one ticket, or apathy has resulted in nominations going by default, one or more parties in districts so afflicted will have no declaration of principles, and the electorate must consent to such a condition.

The Visalia Times relates an interesting condition along the lines alluded to. In Tulare county there is no Democrat making the race for assemblyman, although a nomination is said to be equivalent to an election. Fred C. Scott, of Visalia, Progressive, is running on both tickets. In all probability he will attend the Progressive convention. He has no business attempting to attend both conventions. The Democrats in Tulare county outnumber both the Republicans and Progressives, yet the Democrats will not be represented in the State convention. There is no provision of law for the appointment of a representative by the Democratic county central committee.

While the Democrats of Tulare county deserve little sympathy for the negligence displayed in connection with this nomination, at the same time there are doubtless many of them who would like to be represented in a definite manner by a candidate standing for something in which they believe and these are entitled to that consideration.

Appearances indicate that either the framers of the law mistrusted the people, or else intended to create a condition of non-partisanship in legislative elections. Neither of these reasons are correct or proper. In the first place the people should be trusted to declare what they desire enacted into law. In the second place non-partisanship is not healthy with respect to legislation. Parties are founded on well defined principles, each organization believing them best adapted to the needs of the country. If there is anything in principles they are worth organizing for and fighting for. Such organizations should be on explicit lines and unless a candidate believes in them he should be rejected by the party to which he claims allegiance. A good healthy partisanship has been one of the means by which this nation has achieved eminence. Parties can be held responsible for mistakes intentional or otherwise, but this hop, skip and jump system which allows the individual to romp around on the ballots of all three organizations fixes no responsibility.

The law should be changed so as to deny men the right to pose as believers in one set of principles, while seeking favors from organizations opposed to them. It should be changed so as to permit of the formulations of platforms before nomination, not afterward, and when a candidate for legislative position is proposed he should be compelled to sign a declaration that if elected he will support the platform of the party from which he has accepted a nomination. That would put the "pussy footers" out of business.

LUMBER MARKET IN SPAIN

The American Consul-General at Barcelona, Spain, in a recent report says that special attention should be given to the new lumber market in Spain that is bound to be created immediately upon the opening of the Panama canal to commercial traffic. The opportunity will be further increased upon the establishment of a regular freight service from the Pacific Coast of the United States to Spanish and Portuguese ports by way of the Isthmus.

The import lumber trade as it now stands in Spain is in a flourishing condition. Oregon and California woods, particularly Oregon pine, are well liked for their quality and especially for their large sizes. Several consignments have come to Spain, in reality transshipments from France, England and Germany, which puts the local quotations for this lumber at a high figure and renders it practically impossible to compete always with the pitch pine (long leaf yellow pine) from the Atlantic and Gulf of be still further employed had there not been disputes between sellers and buyers as to quality of lots ordered. This unfortunately has led to a graded rearrangement of conditions, so that now most importers buy through the large English wood brokers who guarantee fulfillment of contracts and allow a good portion of the payment to stand over until the goods have been received and approved. Moreover, they agree to the insertion of a simple arbitration clause in the lumber contracts. At the present time only entire cargoes could profitably be brought direct from the United States to the Pacific to Spain. This would be too considerable an undertaking regarding high freights and would render a successful competition with pitch pine impossible. When smaller lots can be delivered direct, as is hoped will be possible by the opening of the inter-oceanic waterway, and consequent reduced freights there will be a certain, increased

MELROSE HEARS MANY CANDIDATES

Largely Attended Meeting of Union Center Addressed by Aspirants.

MELROSE, July 28.—Nearly 300 residents of the Melrose and Elmhurst districts heard the views of 25 candidates for office at a largely attended meeting in the John C. Fremont high school auditorium under the auspices of the Melrose Union Civic Center last night.

be held by the Center at which all the candidates will be present. Although the candidates for United States senator were invited to be present they were unable to attend. Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland was invited to speak on behalf of her husband but owing to a cold she was unable to do so. Mrs. Knowland was asked to speak at a house meeting at the home of Mrs. A. C. Christensen in Melrose Friday evening when the results of the district will have an opportunity of hearing her views.

Elaborate arrangements by a committee of the Civic Center resulted in the smooth and harmonious conduct of the meeting, each candidate in view of the large number of speakers giving his or her views shortly and concisely. Mrs. A. C. Christensen, president of the Civic Center, who presided, introduced the candidates. It is the desire of the Civic Center to become better acquainted with all the candidates for office, she remarked, "and we thought it our duty to give the members of the Center, people of the district and the candidates an opportunity to exchange views."

OUTLINE POLITICAL VIEWS. With short as time at their disposal the candidates gave a condensed account of their political views and aspirations. "Let the best man win," was the general feeling expressed. A number of the candidates addressed several meetings last night, motoring from one to the other.

With a successful opening meeting the Melrose Civic Center is arranging other mass gatherings and also house meetings in the district when the other candidates will be given an opportunity to speak. The meeting was held in the Melrose Union Civic Center, which is located on the corner of Eleventh and Washington streets.

YUAN'S SOLDIERS IN REBELLION, IS NEWS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Excitement raged in Chinatown on receipt by local Chinese organizations, of cable advices from Shanghai, that President Yuan Shi Kai's soldiers in two military districts had rebelled and captured two densely populated counties. Wing Hing and Lay Yung; also that soldiers in the district of San Chai had rebelled. A cable from Peking said that the President had dispatched a large army to suppress the rebellion which, within 36 hours, has fared up in four military districts of the perturbed Republic.

General Hwang Hsing, revolutionist and exile, is quartered in San Francisco to promote incendiary sentiment among the Chinese of America against the present administration of China.

Chinese Consul-General S. C. Shu, whom the local Chinese at a meeting of the Six Companies Refused to recognize, vigorously defended President Yuan Shi Kai.

"General Hwang is here to get money for another revolution, he says," denounced Shu. "He is the real grifter and not President."

Shu doubts the loyalty of Hwang's presence in the United States and intimated that steps would be taken immediately through the Chinese minister in Washington to stop his campaign in this country.

He May Get Pardon
Appeal to President

JOHN HAYS.

Presidio Blacksmith's
Friends Start
Move

John Hays, blacksmith and former Presidio employee, locked in the county jail on a charge of stealing 600 pounds of zinc from the Government, will probably know next week whether he is to serve the six months' sentence imposed by Federal Judge Dooling, or whether he will leave a free man, by President Wilson's pardon. In a small town in Oregon an aged mother waits for word from Washington, even more anxious than her son over the outcome of the movement to secure his freedom.

Even the federal officers who caused his arrest are working for his release. The man, a young blacksmith, according to his story, left Oregon for San Francisco with the expectation of making his fortune. He was the sole support of his mother. Presidio wages, however, were small and finally, through the expense of living and the necessity of sending money to his mother, he fell afoul of the law. Judge Dooling imposed the lowest sentence of six months.

Friends of the man base their appeal on the fact that it was his first offense. He is one of the best behaved prisoners ever housed there. Strong pleas have been made to the President, and it is expected that Thursday will bring a decision in his case.

WOMEN ORATORS PLEAD FOR MENMrs. J. R. Knowland Leads the Speakers Before County Republican Club.

Yesterday was banner day for the Alameda County Women's Republican club. This organization is growing rapidly in strength and numbers, and an audience approximating 350 representative women assembled in the hotel ball room of the Hotel Oakland to listen to the speakers who appeared on behalf of the various candidates for State and national offices.

Mrs. J. R. Knowland, president of the club, together with Mrs. Camille Burmeister, chairman, and the six speakers of the day comprising Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda, Mrs. Richmond of San Francisco, Mrs. George R. Derrick, Mrs. Philip M. Walsh, Mrs. E. Marcuse of this city, and Mrs. T. C. West of Alameda, occupied the platform. Mrs. Peters, vice-president, from Hayward.

The patriotic nature of the occasion could be gleaned from the silken flags decorating the desk of the presiding officer.

Mrs. George Coolidge opened the meeting by singing "Love You, California," in a manner which elicited enthusiastic applause, and at the finish a delegation of young Republican scouts composed of three girls and three boys, appeared on the platform, the boys who are enlisted in service to the Alameda County Men's Republican club, introduced their fellow workers, the girls, who were wearing services to the women's club. The young folk were in turn introduced to the audience, who greeted their appearance with encouraging smiles and applause. This pleasant ceremony ended, the scouts departed. In the visiting delegation were Miss Lois Thomas, Miss Virginia Hills, Miss Claudia Adams, John Whitten, Rollin Fitch and Howard Hills.

Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland was first of the speakers introduced. She spoke for her husband, Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda, candidate for United States Senator.

Mrs. Knowland's address was short and to the point.

After a few preliminary remarks in which she said that this campaign on her husband's behalf was her first experience in campaign speaking, Mrs. Knowland enumerated some of her attainments in that line; among them a record of 17 speeches made in one day and evening in San Francisco.

To Los Angeles, so far, the speaker declared, belonged credit for the biggest meetings of the campaign. The Southern Women's Federation unanimously endorsing Knowland.

"I am a great believer in women," said Mrs. Knowland in part, "and their ability to accomplish things. They are a great power."

Among other things accomplished through the efforts of women were enumerated the pure food laws, the meat inspection law, and others of like moment.

"Nor will they let up in the work until such reforms as the white slave and uniform divorce laws are in force. We want a man in Washington," emphasized Mrs. Knowland, "who will further these causes. Such a man is my husband, Joseph R. Knowland. He is going to be nominated and elected to the United States Senate."

This sentiment was greeted with much applause and Mrs. Knowland, continuing, enumerated more of Knowland's qualifications.

HIS EXPERIENCE.

"In the 17 years of public life, he has worked always for the people. We want an experienced man in the Senate, one ready to go to work. Mr. Knowland has in his favor training, experience and age—he is only 40. The people of California are going to be represented in Congress by a Californian tried and true—Joseph R. Knowland."

H. Derrick, and for years his professional as well as matrimonial partner, next occupied the platform. Mrs. Derrick, were able to consult personal feelings, would not have appeared, she stated, but where questions involving the State and the Nation were at stake, she felt she would be a traitor if at this time she did not speak her honest convictions.

She then referred to her husband's career. "He succeeds both as a professional and a business man, his public

CABARET CAFES EXERT INFLUENCE OVER YOUNG

NEW YORK, July 28.—The evil influence that the cabaret cafes exert over young people was never better illustrated than when a young woman—twenty and very beautiful—was arrested with two young men charged with burkializing flats.

Caught with stolen goods in their possession the trio confessed. The youths tried to shield the girl, claiming they did all the stealing and she knew nothing of it, but she would not have it so, insisting on taking her part of the blame.

"I loved the cabaret life; I want to stay in cafes all the time," she declared. "John and Otto didn't have money enough and couldn't make enough to keep up the pace, so they had to steal."

The three lived together in a flat and Job Printing at THE TRIBUNE Office.

URGES LABOR TO CONTINUE STRIKE

T. J. Mooney Addresses Central Council, Making Appeal for Ford and Suhr.

Urging all union men to stay away from the Wheatland hop fields and to use all their influence toward keeping up the strike there, Thomas J. Mooney, recently acquitted in Martinez of the charge of dynamite work, was the speaker last night before the Central Labor Council. Mooney made a powerful appeal to the men, urging that the Wheatland strike be kept up until "Suhr" and Ford and his companion Suhr, in jail on charges of the murdering of District Attorney Maxwell of Mariaville during the hop field riots of last year, are released.

"Let the hops rot on the vines!" he declared. "Just as those innocent men are rotting in jail."

Mooney said that the laborers' efforts in his defense and for the fund raised to furnish him lawyers, and spoke of the standing of Oakland's unions in the state. He then took up the Wheatland case, briefly outlining the history of the fight and its results.

MUST PAY A PENALTY.
 "These troubles," he declared, "are outgrowths of economic strife. The two men now in jail were the aggressors and the moved interests have the power. They must pay a penalty. The men in prison are outgrowths of the laborers' efforts to stay away from the hop fields."

A constable was sent to arrest Ford. The workers refused to allow the arrest. Ford was sent to the county seat and the sheriff and district attorney came out with some drunken deputies—some drunk with whiskey and the rest with power. One of these deputies fired into the crowd. Maxwell was killed in the fight.

Maxwell is suing Durst for damages for the death of her husband. If Durst is responsible—and the law will have to decide—how can Ford and Suhr be guilty? The credit for organizing the hop pickers is due to Ford and Suhr. The Hop Growers Association has railroaded them to jail for it. Brutal Burns detectives and manufactured evidence did the work. Where these detectives cannot find criminals they make criminals. Why not? They are only after the common-sense men—and they have to show results.

LET CROP ROT.
 "The only way to fight for these two men is to let the hop crop rot. The growers put Ford and Suhr in jail and can get them out again. If the hop crop this year it won't happen again next year. They will see that the two union men with whom they are freed. It was a frame up by the hop growers. And the Burns detective agency. You men must do your duty to Ford and Suhr, as you did to me."

Continued applause greeted the speaker. A vote was taken, pledging the council to do all in its power to prevent any laborers from going to Wheatland for work. Next week's meeting will see the election of officers by the council. The fight for President Henry J. Kelly, secretary of the union, was a large factor favoring the former. W. A. Spooner is not opposed for the secretaryship.

BREAKS ARM GIVING GRIP.
 SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Fred Hansen, a cook employed at the Union Hotel, when he was in Washington, D. C., was about to depart on a long ocean voyage, squeezed his hand with all the vigor of his command. He reckoned, however, without consideration for the muscle of his companion. The man broke Hansen's forearm. With a yell of pain Hansen drew back and his friend, disconsolate, conveyed him to the harbor hospital.

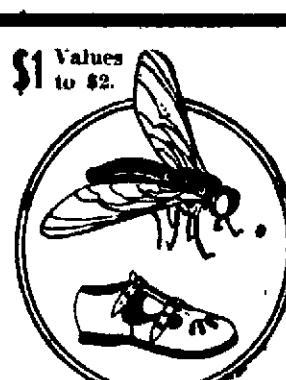

ROBBED BY NEGRO.
 SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Joseph P. Quiney of 318 Linden street, Oakland, an employee of the Pacific Real Estate Company, had a desperate tussle with a robber on the waterfront early this morning. The footpad, a burly negro, tripped Quiney from his pockets, Quiney arose and fought him, but was struck down again. This time the thief went through his pockets, taking $27.

FOREST FIRES RAGING IN MONTANA AND IDAHO

BUTTE, Mont., July 28.—Ten of the largest forest fires in western Montana and northern Idaho this season are raging and the efforts of scores of men have made little progress against the flames, according to reports received yesterday at forestry headquarters at Missoula. The forestry officials received word that there is a large fire still uncontrolled at Gold Creek, two fires are burning on O'Brien Creek, two at Nine Mile, two on the Flathead reserve; one in the Lewis & Clark forest, and two in the Selway forest in Idaho. Forty men are fighting the flames on the Flathead forest, where conditions are most serious and all Near Midvale in the Lewis & Clark forest, fifty men are working against the flames night and day. A forest fire started by campers near Hearst Lake reservoir, which furnishes Anaconda with water, is burning. The timber area to the west of the lake basin seems doomed, but the forest rangers hope the flames will be confined to the limits of the basin. The fire, which started Sunday, soon destroyed telephone lines, cutting off communication with headquarters. Forest alarm from Lookout mountain.

MANIAC ATTACKS WOMEN PASSENGERS IN STAGE

UKIAH, July 28.—Anton Olsen of Covelo, a village near this city, caused a panic on the stage en route from Covelo to Longvale when he became mentally deranged.

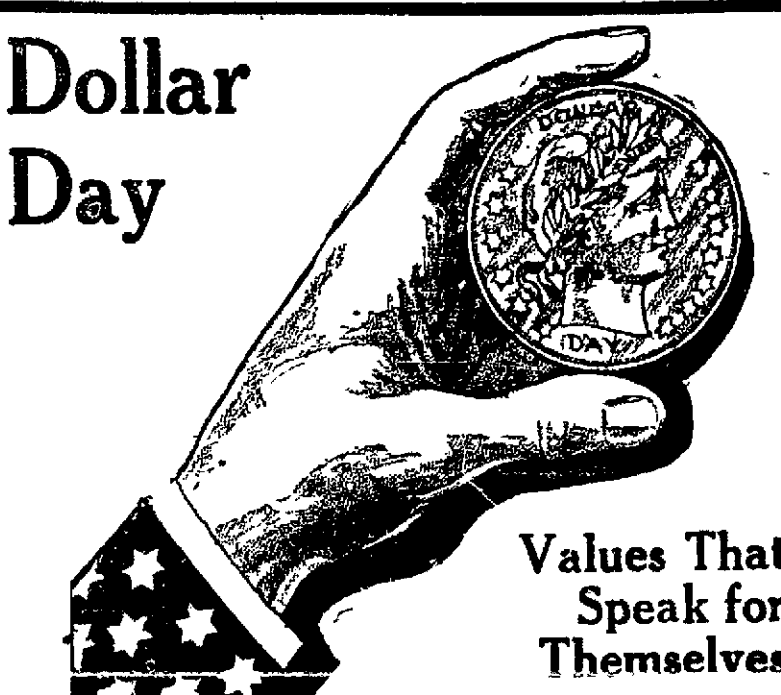

Olsen was taking an amiable part in a conversation with eight other passengers when suddenly he drew out a knife, gave a wild yell and leaped at one of the women passengers. After a long struggle the three men travelers aboard the stage overpowered and disarmed him.

DOG'S HOWLING DEFEATS ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Gas inhaled by Mrs. Christine Aiken of 335 Sixteenth street would have ended her life yesterday afternoon had it not been for pet dogs, who howled, a pitiful cry for assistance and attracted the attention of Patrolman Sears who answered the call of the dogs. Sears found the woman lying down on her bed and immediately removed her to the emergency hospital, where she regained consciousness.

ness Today she was unable to relate the reasons for the attempted suicide. However, she had been suffering from an attack of despondency and in a note written to her husband, Victor L. Aiken, a plumber of this city, she stated that she was tired of life. Mrs. Aiken had carefully planned to end her life, and after closing the doors and windows, she turned on the flow of the gas. Sears forced a window open and made his way into the room, where he discovered Mrs. Aiken unconscious. She has recovered and is now at her Sixteenth-street home.

CRIPPLE IS PLEASED BY DEATH SENTENCE

TOWANDA, Pa., July 28.—When Samuel Wheeler, a Bentley Creek farmer who shot and killed George Kilne last December, was sentenced to death in the electric chair, he was unmoved. "I am an old man, broken down and badly crippled, and no good to any one, so I might as well die," he said. Wheeler is so badly crippled with rheumatism that he had to be carried into the courtroom.

Tarrytown I. W. W. to Be Placed on Trial

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 28.—The nine industrial workers of the World... when they attempted to hold street meetings for the purpose of denouncing John D. Rockefeller Jr. for his refusal to interfere in the Colorado mine strike, are to be placed on trial today. There is considerable doubt as to the outcome. Frank R. Pearson, the village president, announced last night that he and several of the village trustees had agreed with representatives of the accused men to compromise the cases. According to this agreement the prisoners would be permitted to plead guilty and receive a suspended sentence on the promise that the I. W. W. would remain away from Tarrytown in the future.

Ten Millions in U. S. Gold Goes to Paris

NEW YORK, July 28.—The latest gold movement to Europe, which began on last Friday when $2,000,000 was sent to Paris, was further increased today by a shipment of $10,000,000 aboard the liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie. This is said to be the largest single gold shipment ever made from America to Europe. Of today's shipment, $6,000,000 is consigned to London bankers and $4,000,000 to Paris. In addition to this sum, $2,250,000 in gold bars has been engaged for shipment to Paris by the Carmania, which is due to sail tomorrow. Bankers laid the new demand for gold export almost entirely to the war scare in Europe, although they admitted that the forthcoming settlement on the London Stock Exchange, which began yesterday, might have had something to do with it. Other important engagements will be made today, it was said, making the amount to go by the Carmania at least $8,000,000, and the total since Friday, $22,350,000.

Zapatistas Routed by Mexican Rebels

HUERTA-DIAZ REVOLUTION DENIED

Bryan Urges Carranza to Suppress Villa's Military Activity.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Brigadier-General Funston reported today that the Mexican Federal forces in Mexico City had taken the offensive against the Zapatistas and driven them from nearby towns. He says there are 30,000 Federals in the Mexican capital.

Constitutionalist troops have become active along the railroad between Soledad and Orizaba, but are acting in independent bands. Ricardo Lopez, at the head of a band of some 200 men, is said to be laying waste the section south of Vera Cruz toward the seacoast.

DENIES PLOTTING. WASHINGTON, July 28.—Jose Castellot, personal representative here of Provisional President Caballero, emphatically denied today a published report from Toronto that General Felix Diaz was expected to return to Mexico to plan a counter revolution in Mexico. The report was very disturbing to Washington diplomats. Castellot conferred with Secretary Bryan and declared very satisfactory progress toward a peaceful agreement with Carranza. Official advices from Vera Cruz indicated that a complete and satisfactory agreement would be reached whereby the Zapatistas would co-operate with the Constitutionalist in establishing a new government in Mexico. The only disturbing factor in the general situation, from the view point of administration officials, was the decree by General Antonio Villareal, expelling foreign priests from the State of Nuevo Leon, of which he is military governor, and restricting the activity of the Catholic church.

FEAR VILLA. Secretary Bryan appealed today to General Carranza, asking him to call a halt upon Villa, who is reported to be making wholesale demands for horses upon ranch owners in the state of Chihuahua. Consular advices to the State Department also declared the northern general was smuggling arms across the border as rapidly as they were available. There was no doubt in the minds of the people of Chihuahua as to the meaning of Villa's activity, the dispatch to the department added.

The recent reports from the border have intimated that Villa intends to concentrate his forces in Chihuahua with the aim of demanding certain concessions from Carranza after the Constitutionalist occupy Mexico City. However, in response to an appeal from the Washington government, urging him to forget personal differences with Carranza, General Villa declared he intended to co-operate with the other revolutionary leaders and would do all in his power to inaugurate an era of peace in Mexico.

While the administration then expressed assurances that Villa would not permit any dissension with Carranza to develop, reports renewed speculation over the ultimate position that the military chief will take. Consular advices of Villa's new activity confirmed complaints that have reached the State Department from individual property owners. In some instances it was declared Villa had demanded as many as 100 horses from one ranch.

The situation between the Constitutionalist and the Carranza government,

Ranch Homes Are Destroyed by Fire

OROVILLE, July 28.—Every man in the Bangor district has been pressed into service to fight a furious forest fire which has been raging in the mountains east of Oroville for three miles long and the flames cover more than twelve square miles. The residences, barns and other out-buildings on three ranches were totally destroyed by the sweeping flames despite the heroic efforts by the owners and ranch hands to save them. Considerable quantities of grain and fruit were also lost. The Bangor Cemetery was swept. A second blaze broke out yesterday afternoon two miles east of Oroville and is still burning, although great damage has been done. The fire is confined to the underbrush but will be watched closely and not allowed to spread.

Lipton's Challenger Now Safe at Azores

HORTA, Azores, July 28.—Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenger for the America's cup, arrived here today, having taken seven days and three hours for the voyage from Falmouth, England. According to those on board, the would-be lifter of the international trophy proved herself an excellent sea boat in hard blows she took the big seas like a duck and slipped through the water with great ease.

MRS. PAUL ENGSTRUM, WHO, REMOR SAYS, IS TO BECOME THE BRIDE OF "BILLY" LA CASSE SOON.

pending negotiations for the transfer of administration in Mexico City was progressing satisfactorily toward a settlement, Secretary Bryan said. The Saltillo conference to arrange for the transfer probably will convene within the next 10 days.

TROOPS ON ALERT. EL PASO, Texas, July 28.—Added vigilance was displayed here today by American troops on border patrol duty to prevent the smuggling of ammunition to Mexico. General George B. Jr. has issued orders to patrols to search all parcels and sealed packages crossing the line, and customs inspectors have doubled their efforts to apprehend smuggled ammunition since the seizure here late last night by the military authorities of 6000 cartridges, apparently destined for Mexico. Heretofore the customs officials have been the only ones to search baggage bound for Mexico, but the new ruling gave the military the same power.

TO DEPORT AMERICAN. DEMING, N. M., July 28.—Samuel Davis, an American, held prisoner by Constitutionalists military officials at Palomas, Chihuahua, since last Friday, charged with having aided Roque Gomez's band, will be deported from Mexico to-day, according to Sheriff Stephens of this city, who returned last night from Columbus, N. M., on the border, where he investigated the arrest. The release of Davis was obtained by the Mexican consul at Columbus, who advised the Palomas authorities that it was best to release him. It was claimed by Constitutionalists officials that Davis was smuggling arms and ammunition to Roque Gomez.

CARRANZA ON WAY. TAMPIOCO, Mexico, July 27, via Laredo, Texas, July 28.—Upon receipt of official information here today that Provisional President Carranza will send two delegates immediately to Saltillo to arrange the transfer of executive authority of Mexico to the Constitutionalists, General Carranza announced he would leave tomorrow

FAIR DIVORCEE TO WED? BILLY LA CASSE RUMORED GROOM-ELECT AWAITS FINAL DECREE

Mrs. Paul Engstrum, Heroine of Map Chase, May Again Try Matrimony

Will Mrs. Paul Engstrum, fair divorcee and supposed heroine of the ride in which her former husband, in a high-powered automobile, declares he pursued her over beach roads, try matrimony again? That's the question Oakland and San Francisco friends are asking after one disastrous marital cruise with the young Los Angeles millionaire, it is now reported that, as soon as her final decree is granted, she is to wed "Billy" La Casse, with whom her former husband charged, she rode in that race which led to the divorce court. Mrs. Engstrum, who was known as "the most beautiful woman in Los Angeles," is now making her home about the bay, and is declared to have confirmed the story of her coming wedding. The divorce proceedings of the Engstrums created considerable attention here. Engstrum one night secured the aid of policemen, jealous of her husband's wealth, and gave chase, but lost track of the auto. They later appeared at La Casse's room, where the latter warned them away with a revolver. The divorce suit between Engstrum and her husband followed. Engstrum himself doesn't intend to wed again, he says "Once is enough. I'm through with this marriage game," is his statement.

Wilson and Hitchcock to Bury the Hatchet

COLUMBUS, Neb., July 28.—Early arrivals for the Democratic State platform convention were pretty well agreed that harmony would be the slogan of all the delegations, and that there would be no trouble over the principal business of the convention—the adoption of a platform. Representatives of Secretary of State Bryan and United States Senator Hitchcock were in the city and all of them agreed that any difference there might have been between President Wilson and Senator Hitchcock at Washington would be buried at today's convention.

"Banana-Banner," President's "Rhyme"

WASHINGTON, July 28.—President Wilson, who has a reputation as a limerick maker, today sprang a new one on a group of Irish members of Congress who called on him. One of them mentioned having been in Havana, Cuba, recently, and the President recited the following lines: "There was a young man from Havana, Who slipped on a nice new banana; The things that he said when he fell on his head Were not fit for a Sunday school banner."

for Monterey. He expected to reach Saltillo within two or three days. It was announced Carranza would not select a commission, but would reach Saltillo about the time Carranza does. It was understood here today that official assurances would be given through a high Constitutional official guaranteeing good order and preservation of property in Mexico City. The statement, it was said, would also declare Carranza will insist on an unconditional surrender.

Bullock Disposes of House Which Figured in Recent Divorce

Through a transfer dated May 29, J. J. Bullock, former district attorney of San Mateo county, and his wife, Charlotte C. Bullock, from whom he was divorced recently, and with whom he became reconciled, have disposed of their property in First avenue, near Lake Merritt, to Sam F. Harris. Harris sold the property to H.

retired to San Mateo county, where the former district attorney is practicing law. It was in the First-avenue home that a number of incidents took place last winter which were elaborated upon in the divorce court.

Mrs. Angle Held for W. R. Ballou's Death

STAMFORD, Ct., July 28.—Mrs. Helen Angle is held criminally responsible for the death of Walter R. Ballou, a prominent politician here on the night of June 23, in a finding made by Coroner John J. Phelan today. Ballou was found in a dying condition outside a downtown business building in which Mrs. Angle had an apartment. To the police that night Mrs. Angle said she found Ballou at the foot of a flight of stairs in the building after he had left her, and that in the belief that he was dazed from a fall or from liquor, she carried him outside and left him on the doorstep of the entrance. Ballou died from a fractured skull. At the coroner's inquest Mrs. Angle refused to make a statement, and Coroner Phelan announced that if, by Friday last, she failed to do so, he would hold her for trial. He admitted Mrs. Angle to bail, owing to her nervous state, and she was taken by her father, Leonard Blondell, to Southport, Me.

New Yorker Proposed for Reserve Board

WASHINGTON, July 28.—A. Barton Hepburn, chairman of the board of the Chase National Bank of New York, was being considered today for a place on the Federal Reserve Board, should Paul M. Warburg finally refuse to appear before the Senate banking committee, as a preliminary to his confirmation. Senator Hitchcock was to return here late today from New York after a conference with Warburg. The White House expected he would bring the final word, which would determine whether the banker becomes a member of the board. President Wilson has not decided on a man in the place of Thomas D. Jones of Chicago, whose name was withdrawn, but is expected to do so this week.

Market Manifests Foreign Uneasiness

NEW YORK, July 28.—Reflecting foreign conditions, the local market manifested further uneasiness in today's early dealings. Shares of the international group are off 1 to 2 points, in few instances, however, yielding to London's low level. Announcement of further gold exports to Paris and London served to emphasize the financial tension at those points.

SAYS TEACHERS OUGHT EAT MORE

Professor Rugh Addresses the Morning Session of Institute in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, July 28.—"Teachers ought to eat more, sleep longer and exercise more strenuously," declared Professor C. H. Rugh of the University of California at this morning's session of the Berkeley Teachers' Institute.

Professor Rugh saw for the teachers the necessity of carefully watching their physical, mental and spiritual vitality. Mental development was to be secured, he declared, by finding an interest in other subjects other than that which one taught. He advised:

"I find too many teachers are aristocrats. Because they talk down to their pupils they are too apt to consider themselves above them."

TELLS OF N. E. A.

Arthur Chamberlain, who attended the recent National Educational Association in Minneapolis, discussed before the teachers this morning the transactions of that convention. He told of several of the addresses and discussions that featured the session and drew a number of lessons that were locally applicable.

Professor Alexis F. Lange, head of the education department in the University of California, gave an address on "Observations on Physical Education in Germany." With German sports as his text, Professor Lange deplored the over-specialization of high school athletes in this country. On the continent, he declared, there were very few spectators and very many athletes, all who were physically able participating in the games.

"At one time," he explained, "Germany maintained her own team of athletes and it was of the severely gymnasium type. In recent years the country has come, however, to adopt the English and American system and greatly to improve upon it. Further than England surpasses America in interesting a large body of students in games, so Germany surpasses England. Victory is striven for, of course, but individual victory rather than team victory is the goal. Because of this there is not the killing competition that leaves only a small group of athletes upon whom all the pressure of super-training is brought to bear."

CONCERTS FOR YOUNG.

In this afternoon's session William Edwin Chamberlain spoke on "Concerts for Young People." Chamberlain for the past several terms has managed the young people's concerts which have been held at intervals at the High School auditorium. These have been attended by children, but by teachers and other adults as well, with much pleasure and profit, he believes. He urged upon the teachers a continued support for the concerts, outlining some of the programs that would be given during the course of the year.

Professor R. Hetherington of the University of Wisconsin, who is in the faculty of the physical education department of the summer session here, gave the final address this afternoon on "Getting the Whole Child to School." He urged that mere mental training was giving way to a more rounded education, with lagging footsteps or imperfect blood flow can be expected to give his studies the attention they deserve," declared Professor Hetherington.

"We have to re-learn the soundness of sound mind in a sound body and give the child the latter as the basis for the former. Physical education is as much a duty of the school as is mental education, for the two are complementary without the one the other cannot be."

The closing day of the session is tomorrow, the opening of the schools for the fall semester coming Thursday morning. Among the speakers tomorrow will be Professor Lewis C. Wood, Lewis C. Wood, and Sherman G. Wood, and Sherman G. Wood.

The committee's report cleared Mayer of the charge, stating that Mayer had asked for protection, but not for troops.

MRS. CHARLES F. PENDLETON (CARMELITA CUVELLIER), WHOSE WEDDING IS A SURPRISE TO SOCIETY.—Scharz Photo.

HERE is a bachelor girl in San Francisco society who goes around the world alone. Her indifference to chaperons is proverbial and almost peculiarly Californian. This year she is spending the summer quietly and well chaperoned in Menlo Park, but in the fall she is likely to sail for Tahiti, or some other unexplored place, alone.

Of course bachelor women may go anywhere unattended in this enlightened age of feminism, but the San Francisco girl is really a girl in her twenties. She was in her very early twenties when she first went abroad alone a few years ago and through some grace of personality "got away with it" among conventional people.

It happened that there was no one to go with her. Her father and mother are dead and a sister is married. For two or three months she waited about for some friend or other who might be going to Europe for a year, and finally gave it up. Announced her intention of going alone, and went. On the continent she met friends and would pass a few weeks at a time with different people, but her home was not in Europe and she was not a chaperon.

The other day she told some of her experiences with professional chaperons. Paris and London are full of them, and they were determined to chaperon her, she said. Called at her hotel and offered their protection for various sums, explaining the dangers, criticisms and dreadful consequences of a journey alone in London or Paris. But she risked them.

There was an interesting story, apropos, of another American girl who was given over to a chaperon in Paris. Her name was Bartlett and her home was in St. Joseph, Mo. The family had done Europe and all but the girl returned to St. Joe. The girl was left in Paris in the hands of a chaperon who proceeded to chaperon her in the French manner. This protection lasted two months. Then she ran away. Arrived one morning at a friend's hotel and said she couldn't stand the chaperon any longer. The friend took her in and there was no end of a stir over it. The chaperon wouldn't withdraw. Declared her rights over the girl, who wouldn't return to her, and it took the American consul-general to settle the affair and assure the girl her American freedom. Being successfully chaperoned, she unchaperoned, is largely a question of temperament and personality after all.

TEA AT HOTEL OAKLAND.
Miss Mary Alexander was hostess at a tea at the Hotel Oakland yesterday afternoon, that was one of the most delightful affairs of mid-summer. It was in honor of Mrs. G. M. A score of guests were entertained at a prettily decorated table that filled one of the lower floors of the hotel. SO many letters from stout women have been crowding upon me that I have almost neglected the lean ones. They need a word of consolation. There are countries in the world where a woman is not how fat she will be esteemed the more attractive, but a scrawny, bony figure is like bad rhyme, intolerable to gods and men. The only woman who ever derived advantage from such an appearance was Mme. Ida Pfeiffer. She refused to eat more than her appetite demanded.

Let a woman adhere to a diet of fat-making foods and take an overdose of rest and sleep. There is no need to stuff oneself with appetizing dishes. It is not the quantity but the kind of food and its ready conversion into flesh that are demanded. It is essential that the digestion be kept in perfect order. An overloaded stomach is a positive injury.

late on soft beds, avoid violent exercise and disturbing thoughts. Bathe in lukewarm water and slip a cloth before retiring. After leaving the bath be rubbed down with oil. Irregular hours of rest and meals, anxiety, overwork and exercise are sure to maintain leanness. Therefore, keep a light heart, eat plenty of fattening food and drink water with your meals.

Remember: Good natured people are inclined to be stout. Cultivate everything sweet, disposition as well as food.

Answers to Queries.

MRS. C. E.—There is nothing you can do to restore your hair to its natural color except to leave it as it is. The hair will soon change back to its natural color. It will become streaked for a while, but the bleach will gradually wear away. Don't whatever you do use a dye on your hair. That will only make matters worse. Take good care of your hair, massage your scalp each night and shampoo it about every two weeks.

H. L.—The beauty of the eyebrows consists in having them moderately thick, especially in the center, directly over the pupil of the eye, the outer extremity tapering to a point with soft, silken, regular hairs of a color a shade or two darker than the hair of the head. They should always be separated on the bridge of the nose and with their edges clearly defined against the skin. If your eyebrows are not smooth brush them gently each night with a small brush dipped in olive-oil. Brush the eyebrows so they will lie flat. This will train the hairs to lay flat.

A GRATEFUL READER.—For reducing your weight take a half pound of epsom salts and dissolve in a pint of water, then shave face with one of the best white soaps and dissolve in a pint of boiling water. When partially cool beat in the epsom salt solution. Massage this preparation heavily into the fleshy parts at night and allow to dry on the skin. In the morning wash off with soap and water until the excess disappears. The average loss of weight is two pounds per week. This treatment is perfectly harmless. Of course I cannot mention any special brand of soap, but a cake of soap about the size of a bar of ivory soap may be used.

ROSALIE—I think your trouble is only self-consciousness. Forget about yourself entirely when you are out in company. Think of something to say or do for some one else. Be able to talk on the current events, the latest books or plays. I am sure if you forget about yourself you will stop blushing.

L. M.—I will gladly print the formula for astringent lotion: One and one-half ounces of witch hazel, one-half ounce of tincture of benzoin, one ounce of alcohol, and five ounces of orange flower water. Put the alcohol and benzoin into an eight-ounce bottle, add the other ingredients previously mixed and shake slightly. Apply with a sponge night and morning. It will correct an oily skin and close enlarged pores.

M. B.—The trouble is you wash your hair too often and do not give enough attention to the scalp. Twice a week is much too often to wash the hair. The hair should not be shampooed more than twice a month. Give your scalp more attention and your hair will not be so oily. Each night massage your scalp for ten or fifteen minutes. This will loosen your scalp and make it flexible, and will distribute the oil more evenly through the hair. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope, I shall gladly send you formulas for a tonic and shampoo for oily hair and directions for scalp massage.

DOTY.—For superfluous hair mix two parts of peroxide of hydrogen with one part of ammonia. The peroxide will bleach the hair, making it less conspicuous, and the ammonia will gradually kill the roots.

MRS. E. W. J.—If you will send me the required stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you the formula for reducing flesh, also the dietary.

Webster, Theodore Wilder and Charles Stetson Wheeler, Jr. will be decorated in pastel shades, pale blue, lavender and pink amaryllis to be used with palms and mountain greens.

COUNTRY HOUSE PARTY.
Mrs. George W. Emmons is chaperoning a party of young people who are spending several days at the Emmons' ranch on Mt. Diablo. Miss Mary Emmons will return to the family residence in Alameda tomorrow, but Mrs. Emmons and Miss Gertrude with several guests will remain at the Emmons' home in the hill colony this year, and the N. P. Coles, who have one of the show places, have added much to the gaiety of the season.

ENDS VISIT.
Miss Gladys Deal returned yesterday to her home in San Francisco after a visit of two weeks to the latter's home in Grand avenue. Several informal teas and bridge parties were given in honor of Miss Deal during her stay, among those to entertain her being Mrs. W. G. Deal, Mrs. Bred, and Mrs. S. Shepard who gave a bridge party in her honor.

IN CARMEL.
Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Krehlein have taken a cottage at Carmel for two months before going to Fresno where they will reside for the next two years. They will entertain at several week-end house parties at which number of their Oakland friends will be entertained at Carmel. The Krehlein home in Linda Vista has been leased to the C. E. Grunsky, Jr.

A motor party that included Rupert Whitehead, Dr. W. S. Bauer, Stanislaus Boggs, and Dr. May returned Sunday from a jolly trip to Tahoe. They were absent ten days, enjoying the fishing and hunting in the mountains about the lake.

VISITS HAYS HAMMONDS.
Mrs. Jack Hays, the sister of Mrs. J. H. Norris, has returned to California for a delightful visit at "Look-out Hill," the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond at Gloucester, Massachusetts. She crossed the continent to be near her son, John Coffey Hays, who recently underwent an operation.

Mrs. Hays will leave for the East again in a few weeks to join her mother, Mrs. John McVull at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia.

TO ENTERTAIN VISITOR.
Mrs. Lewis Tschelner will be hostess at an informal summer tea later in the season in honor of her niece, Mrs. Lynn Ross of Indiana, who is a guest at the Tschelner home for two months. Mrs. Ross arrived last week with her little daughter, Margaret. Mrs. Ross was formerly Miss Gladys Gould of Oakland, and was prominent in society here before her marriage. A number of affairs will be given in her honor during her stay.

RECEPTION TO CHASE.
The reception in honor of William Chase that was given at Del Monte last week, was a unusually interesting affair. Many of the summer visitors were present, as well as the artists who are gathered at Carmel and in Monterey. During the afternoon the famous painter gave an interesting, informal talk that was addressed principally to artists. It was a discourse on high ideals in art, versus the commercial interest, to which so many artists surrender. Among the well-known artists who greeted the distinguished guest of honor were: Madame Betti De Jong, Miss Isabelle Percy, Miss Catharine Vivian, Helen Wood Smith, Miss Josephine Culbertson, Mrs. Cannon A. Oliver, William Silva-Torresley, John Gamble, Bruce Nelson, Le Randolph, Armin Hansen, Charlton Fortune, William Adams, M. De Neale Morgan and Charles Heston.

MACONS TO RETURN.
Rev. and Mrs. Clifton Maccon and their two children who are spending a month at Glenbrook, Lake Tahoe, will return to their Oakland home the first of August. They will make the trip by motor and will spend several days en route.

IN MENLO PARK.
Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cumerson have returned from a visit to Bartlett Springs and will be guests at the Cluff home in Menlo Park for several weeks. Mrs. Cumerson was formerly Mrs. Mary Downey of Berkeley. Her mother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Brenner are spending the summer at Menlo.

VISITED BROOKDALE.
Miss Agnes Williams has returned from Brookdale, where she was the guest of Mrs. William Gemrich for several weeks.

PLANS MOTOR TRIP.
Mrs. W. E. Montgomery has returned from a visit with friends on the Russian coast and will make a motor trip to Lake Tahoe and the Feather river country.

WILL FORM CLUBS FOR THE BOATING SEASON.
Immediately after the opening of the grammar and high schools of Oakland and Berkeley boating clubs will be organized by John Guttenberg, who will be in charge of the municipal clubhouse on Lake Merritt. He established many boating societies in Alameda, where 60 boats took part in a recent regatta.

Guttenberg plans a systematic crusade of the local schools and declares that rowing will be one of the leading sports of the fall season. The clubhouse on Lake Merritt will be open to the public in the early part of August. He is very anxious to create an interest in rowing among the young people as he declares that it is one of the most refreshing and healthful of all outdoor sports. He has already written letters to the captains of crews of the boating clubs of the Oakland schools and he expects that there will be many favorable responses.

CURE YOUR EATING MUSCLE IRONING BOARD DOES TRICK

Beauty finds aid in physical culture.

HERE'S THE IRONING BOARD FOR THE "EATING MUSCLE" AS PRACTICED BY MISS SEEBACK, THE WORLD'S CHAMPION WOMAN BAG PUNCHER.

Then Dine and Be Merry Miss Seeback Advises

The new post-banquet treatment? It's a board! To cure all the ills digestion is heir to and man assailed by, "iron your eating muscle."

That's the word of Miss Seeback, the world's woman champion bag puncher, now on the Orpheum circuit, and declared one of the most perfect specimens of womanhood. The idea isn't hers, she says, but the application of it is—and it's great exercise as well as a perfect health measure.

It's best, she declares, for those who eat much and exercise little, but it's good for anyone who eats or exercises to any extent. And it only takes an ironing board, at that.

The idea, says Miss Seeback, originated with a famous London physician. He discovered the "eating muscle" and proceeded to develop it. Dr. Loren Wilder of New York is another who has been working on the treatment of the "eating muscle."

HOW IT'S DONE.
Miss Seeback exercises on an ironing board. The patient lies with the feet higher than the head on the board and exercises in that position. Bending forward and then backward, the abdominal muscles are accordingly exercised and digestion aided.

"People for over forty years," declares the doctor from whom Miss Seeback got the idea, "have been devaluing their digestions by hard work at heavy luncheons which only excite the glands and bring to patients to the doctor's office. Exercise alone can cure this condition."

"The ironing board is a splendid cure," declares Miss Seeback. "Of course one mustn't eat too much, anyhow, and plenty of exercise should always be taken. Drink plenty of milk and water, too, if desired, and keep busy. Something to do, even if it's only bending back and forward on an ironing board, cures a good deal."

"MYSTERY MAID" DEFILES LOS ANGELES.
LOS ANGELES, July 28.—Hurling a challenge at all the police and detectives in the city, a girl forger, who has victimized many Broadway merchants by means of worthless checks, has defied the officers to capture her.

She wrote a letter, signed herself the "Broadway Mystery Maid" and declared she is forging checks for the love of adventure and not for the lure of money.

The dainty gauntlet of the clever woman forger was thrown at the feet of the cleverest detectives in the city with a deal to them to arrest her if they can.

The letter, in the handwriting of a girl, evidently young, challenges the sleuths to find their wits against hers. The daring of this woman of the Arsene Lupin type almost stupefied the local police with surprise when the letter was received.

But they picked up the gauntlet and accepted the challenge. "The Broadway Mystery Maid" will be caught, they declare. Here is the letter:

"You will wonder when you get this why I am sending it, but I just had a desire to add a bit of mystery to my name. I don't pass bad checks because I need the money, but I do it for the excitement I get out of it. Now, to add to the excitement, I am going to challenge you to match your wits against mine. See if you can catch me. If you do I will take my medicine; if you don't, I will continue to do as I please in this dishonest way and give it to the little newboys on the street."

"I wonder if you will catch me?" "I'll just call me 'Broadway's Mystery Maid,' I'll steal from the big stores on Broadway."

"Good by until we meet." "B. M. M."

DAUGHTER OF PRESIDENT CONDUCTS BAZAAR BOOTH.
STROUDSBURG, Pa., July 28.—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, was one of the main causes for the great success of a bazaar held at Point Pocomo for the benefit of the Wellesley fire fund. She, together with Miss Batten of New York, had charge of the wonder tree, and together they cleared over $50 at their booth. At first people eyed her as though they were afraid to approach the booth, but her frank personality and congeniality soon won them over and there was always a crowd around there. On Estancia she will sing some solos at Mount Pocomo.

SCHUMANN-HEINK DIVORCE APPEAL IS TO BE TAKEN.
CHICAGO, July 28.—Notice was given yesterday by William Rapp, Jr., of his intention to take an appeal to the Appellate Court in the recent decree of divorce granted Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Heink. Rapp will set up in his appeal that he should have been permitted to prove Mrs. Schumann-Heink's legal residence and that the trial judge erred when he refused Rapp permission to cross-examine certain witnesses.

"BLUE BIRDS" MEET FOR LAST SUMMER AFFAIR.
The Blue Birds of Bushrod Park playground will attend a "dolls' party" tomorrow afternoon, when the girls will have a new program of games. The event of the summer season will be the final party in which about 200 boys and girls took part. The playground opened about seven weeks ago without its full equipment and will reopen under the supervision of trained playground workers in the fall. "The outdoor gymnasium will be installed and the children will again receive a public invitation to frolic about the grounds."

How Out-of-Door Life Affects Beauty.
Exposure to sun and wind does not harm the elements, although often acting as a tonic to the system in general and sometimes heightening the color of the skin, is still very damaging to the refined appearance of the complexion. The open air in itself is good, but the face should always be well protected against the extreme heat, wind and dust. The girls of your acquaintance who live a great deal out of doors by no means have the most beautiful complexion. You can best protect your skin against the elements or lotion which you can very easily make at home by getting a ounce spumax from druggist and dissolving it in half pint of hot water, to which you add two teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This lotion is easier to apply than powder, does not rub off, looks like part of the skin, giving a natural, velvety bloom while removing shininess and surface discolorations and curing irritation and pimples.

MT. HERMON, Santa Cruz Co., July 28.—The subject of the Indians has received attention at Mount Hermon Federal School of Missions. On Saturday morning, Mrs. D. B. Wells concluded her classes in Hon. Francis Leupp's book, "In Red Man's Land."

Miss Lillie Corwin, Baptist missionary among the Nevada Indians, has spoken during the school, showing her audience a beautiful blue-and-white bead, used given her at Christmas by an Indian girl, and an embroidered white waist given by another Indian girl. Miss Corwin has been successful in winning the confidence of the Indians. There are from 100 to 200 Indians in the congregation at church at Fallon, Nevada, every Sunday. Miss Corwin has her own house just outside the Government Indian School of 300 pupils at Carson. Christianity is not taught in the Government School, but Miss Corwin has her Junior Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., among the pupils.

The Indian girls and boys are taught to work, the girls baking bread for the 200, learning to eat tables, to care for the sick, etc., the boys learning to make clothing, shoes, etc.

This Government School has a big exhibit of its output at the previous fair in Reno. Fifteen of the Indian girls are working in Berkeley this year.

"If you want to help along," said Miss Corwin, "send us some good books and magazines and pictures."

Rev. F. G. Collett, field secretary of the Indian Board of Co-operation, spoke briefly Saturday morning. Collett was one of those who went with Major McLaughlin, when an expedition was made, giving the allegiance of the Indians of this State to the United States flag. There were occasions when the Indians took hold of the United States flag for the first time and helped to raise it, feeling that it was their flag. Collett is working on a plan of Indian schools for parents and children. State School Superintendent Hyatt has written a little leaflet called "The Indian in the Public Schools." Collett stated that there is a special opportunity just now for two certified school teachers who are interested in the Indians, to obtain schools among them.

THIRTY-FOUR MILLION FISH EGGS HATCHED

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—Thirty-four million, one hundred and forty-two thousand fish eggs have been hatched to date in 1914 at the California hatcheries, according to the report of W. H. Shibles, hatchery superintendent.

The Sisson hatchery in the Sacramento valley has been spending its effort principally in salmon fry and trout eggs and fry. At this station 21,900,000 salmon have been distributed. Of the 5,006,000 that the hatcheries recently had on hand a carload was shipped to Grants Pass, Ore., to be placed in the Smith river in Del Norte county. The residue were placed in the Sacramento river.

The Sisson hatchery has a stock of 6,151,200 trout and steel heads on hand at the present time, divided as follows: Loch leven trout, 1,818,840; eastern brook trout, 1,169,750; rainbow trout 857,700; steel heads, 2,305,000. At all the hatcheries in the state there are at present 3,260,290 trout and 26,785,899 quinnat salmon.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 28.—A social mayor, whose business it will be to represent the city on occasions when citizens desire to impress their guests and themselves with the culture, refinement and civility of the town, is proposed as a feature of the new scheme of municipal government which a special committee has prepared at the request of the Newport Improvement Association.

TO CONSOLIDATE NAVAL SERVICE

Revenue Cutter, Lighthouse and Transport Service to Enter Establishment.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—With the certainty that under present conditions only three out of every hundred graduates of the naval academy can hope to attain the rank of admiral before their retire, Secretary Daniels believes that the time is opportune to enlarge the fields of activities of the young sailors by taking into the naval establishment the revenue cutter, the lighthouse and the army transport services. As soon as some of the larger naval problems now before him have been solved, the secretary expects to develop the details of the plans for the consolidation of these services with the navy. He feels that in this way naval employment can be assured for all of the graduates of the academy who will acquire a practical knowledge of navigation and of local pilotage and at the same time afford the navy an adequate reserve of trained officers in time of war. Incidentally the scheme is in line with the secretary's general idea of making the navy pay for itself in time of peace, one feature of which was the carriage of mail by naval vessels which would otherwise be in reserve.

SECRETARIES ASK FOR COLLEGE RECOGNITION

A course for the education of secretaries of commercial organizations will soon be included in the University of California curriculum if the heads of the university favor the plan adopted by the California Association of Commercial Secretaries, now meeting at the Hotel Del Monte, in Monterey.

Joseph E. Cline of the Oakland Commercial Club presided at the meeting. Forty organizations from all parts of California are represented at the gathering, which devoted most of yesterday afternoon to the discussion of the university training of secretaries.

A committee consisting of Edward H. Brown of the Sonoma County Development Board, Wells Drury of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, Professor Hatfield of the State University, L. M. King of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and A. A. Denison of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce reported in favor of the proposed step, and the convention adopted the sentiment of the committee unanimously.

The course of study recommended included: Financing of a commercial body; specializing in community work; permanent local exhibitions; compiling of statistics; problems of administration and methods of obtaining information.

Frank B. Davidson, of Exposition Park, Los Angeles, addressed the assembly on "The Permanent Exposition: Its Aims and Purposes."

The evening session was taken up with a lecture on the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

TO AMEND TRADE COMMISSION BILL

Discussion of Motion by Senator Brandegee Resumed in Senate Today.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senator Brandegee's motion to strike from the interstate trade commission bill the section which would declare unfair competition unlawful and empower the proposed commission to define unfair competition and prevent corporations from using unfair methods in commerce was up for discussion when the senate resumed consideration of the measure today. The motion had been offered after adoption by a large vote of an amendment which would apply to that section of the bill relating to unfair competition.

Order of ending of the commission or of a court in connection therewith should be admissible as evidence in any suit, civil or criminal, brought under the anti-trust laws. Senator Brandegee's motion followed vigorous opposition by himself and Senator Sutherland to the amendment. The vote on the amendment was the first reached and gave Democratic leaders new hopes of a final vote on the measure by Saturday night.

The opening of a conference here today of Republican senators called to discuss the trust legislative program and the general situation was being awaited with interest. Many of them had signed their intention to help the Democrats in expediting legislation in order to hasten adjournment of congress.

ISLAND NATIVES DYING.

SEATTLE, July 28.—The natives on Attu Island, the westernmost of the Aleutian chain of Alaska, are dying rapidly and within a few years the island will be entirely depopulated, according to officers of the revenue cutter Unalga, which has returned from an 8500-mile cruise among the islands of the north. Captain H. C. Hamlet, commander of the Unalga, said large numbers of the Aleuts on Attu are dying of diseases, the mortality during the winter and spring being especially great. The Aleuts are afflicted with nearly every disease known to medical science, the Urals officers said.

SENATE MAY ESTABLISH A UNIT OF EXCHANGE

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The senate banking and currency committee had before it today the bill introduced by Senator Thomas of Colorado, providing for the coinage of quarter dollars to commemorate completion of the Panama canal and the hundredth anniversary of peace between English speaking peoples. A feature of the bill was the injection of gold and silver at 22 to 1. The measure also would provide that each quarter must weigh 157.5 grains and that any person offering 103.125 ounces of pure silver, plus 2.30 in lawful money could receive from the treasury four hundred quarters of $100.

Accompanying the bill was a statement urging that the measure would establish a fixed par exchange with countries which use the British coinage as a unit of exchange and an appropriate parity with 21 countries which use the French franc as the exchange unit. The bill was offered "by request" but Senator Thomas did not disclose its author.
